Did you know?

Jesus is the Good Shepherd. He takes our burdens upon His shoulders. He desires to remove the yoke of slavery and death and replace it with the yoke of freedom and eternal life. There is no greater burden than to be hopeless or lost. Working without a sense of purpose and not enjoying the fruits of one's labour is the lot of the slave. Salvation in Christ frees us from the burdens of sin - the burden of slavery, addiction and oppression. Our Lord offers us a whole new way of living, a way of hope. Hope uplifts and relieves us from these heavy burdens. The Gospel way is not effortless, but it is an effort that is inspired and supported by Christ. It is a burden that is light: it is a joyful burden! (p. 17, SB 2024)

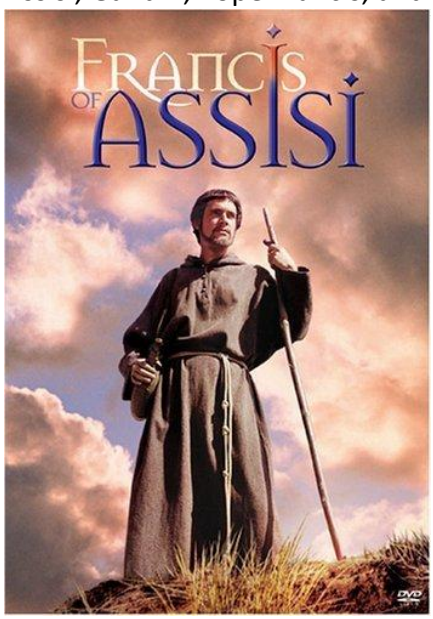
SIMPLICITY

Most of us have grown up with a capitalist worldview which makes a virtue and goal out of accumulation, consumption, and collecting. It's hard for us to see this as an unsustainable and unhappy trap because all of our rooms are decorated in this same color. It is the only obvious story line that our children see. "I produce therefore I am" and "I consume therefore I am" might be today's answer to Descartes' "I think therefore I am." These identities are all terribly mistaken.

This foundational way of seeing has blinded so that we now tend to falsely assume more is better. The course we are on assures us of a predictable future of strained individualism, severe competition as resources dwindle for a growing population, and perpetual war. Our culture ingrains in us belief that there is never enough for health care, education, the arts, or basic infrastructure. The largest budget is always for war, bombs, and military gadgets.

E.F. Schumacher said years ago, "Small is beautiful," and many other wise people have come to know that less stuff invariable leaves room for more soul. In fact, possessions and soul seem to operate in inverse proportion to one another. Only through simplicity can we find deep contentment instead of perpetually striving and living unsatisfied. Simple living is the foundational social justice teaching of Jesus, Francis of Assisi, Gandhi, Pope Francis, and all hermits, mystics, prophets, and seers since time immemorial.



Franciscan alternative orthodoxy asks us to let go, to recognize that there is enough to go around and meet everyone's needs but not everyone's greed. A worldview of enoughness will predictably emerge in an individual as they move toward naked being instead of thinking that more of anything or more frenetic doing can fill up our longing and restlessness. Francis did not just tolerate or endure such simplicity; he actually loved it and called it poverty. Francis dove into simplicity and found his freedom there. This is hard for most of us to comprehend. Thankfully, people like Dorothy Day and Wendell Berry have illustrated how this is still possible even in our modern world.

Francis knew that climbing ladders to nowhere would never make us happy nor create peace and justice on this earth. Too many have to stay at the bottom of the ladder so we can be at the top. Alternative orthodoxy levels the playing field and offers abundance and enoughness to all, regardless of their status or state of belonging to religion or group.

(quoted from Franciscan Fr. Richard Rohr)

Honouring Our Heroes: Remembrance Day 2026

On Wednesday, November 11, our nation will pause to observe Remembrance Day. As a community, we take this time to remember and give thanks for the immense sacrifices made by the brave men and women of our armed forces who served, and continue to serve, to protect our freedoms.

Please join us for our special Remembrance Day Service on Wednesday, November 11, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish, 5 Fatima Dr. Riverview on Wednesday, November 11th, 2026, at 10:50 A.M.as we gather in prayer for peace, reflect on our history, and honour those who gave everything. There will be hot dogs and soup at the Dan Bohan Center following the service.

"Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." — John 15:13
