SAINT ELIZABETH OF THE TRINITY

ADORATION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT.

Join us at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church Fri., October 20th beginning with Mass at 7:00 pm. We will end for the night at midnight and begin again Saturday morning at 7:00 a.m., concluding at 4:00 p.m.

This longstanding devotion is a time of special prayer and devotion to our Lord present in the Blessed Sacrament. We ask all parishioners to pray that more Catholics will respond to God's call to service in the Church, in both the ordained and lay ministries.

We invite all parishioners from our grouping to spend some time in the Day chapel during this period. As we need 2 names for each hour of adoration, we also invite you to include your name on the sign up board in the foyer at Immaculate Heart, or call the parish office at 386-6178 and we can add your name.

"We must celebrate the Eucharist with faith, receive it with reverence, and allow it to transform us through adoration."

Saint Pope John Paul II.

STEWARDSHIP STATEMENT:

Have you ever taken a moment to figure out how much time, on the average, you spend in a week volunteering in your church and in your community?

ALL SAINTS - ALL SOULS

Everyone knows how to celebrate Halloween right? That's with costumes, candy and scary movies!

Well, did you know that Halloween is not the entire story? Do you know about All Saints' Day and All Souls' Day?

Each year, just as the harvest is finished in much of the world, Christians keep their own harvest, that is, God's harvest.

On November 1st, we celebrate All Saints' Day, the harvest of the Saints. We are offered the tremendous opportunity to celebrate our communion with the saints in heaven, and to honour their holy lives, by our presence at mass.

On November 2nd, we celebrate All Souls' Day and in our parish grouping we remember in a special way those buried from our churches in the past year. This year, our All Souls' celebration will be at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church on Thursday, November 2nd at 7:00 p.m. and we encourage all to come and remember those who have gone before us.

Throughout the month of November, a table will be set up in each Church to display the pictures of those buried from our churches this past year and candles will be lit for each at every Mass in November.

International Day for the Elimination of Poverty-

On Oct 17th at 3:30 p.m., concerned people will meet at the monument behind the Rogers building on the Moncton riverfront and together, we will march to the St George Anglican Church, 51 Church St. At 4:00 p.m. a discussion on the theme of inclusion will be led by former MP Claudette Bradshaw. The event is organized by the Common Front for Social Justice. A light snack will be available. Call Al Daly for further info at 386-2563.

Communion Ministers and Lectors There will be workshops coming in November for people currently involved in these ministries and for any who are interested in becoming involved. On November 16th there will be a workshop in the basement of Immaculate Heart for communion ministers and on November 23rd there will be a workshop in the main church of Immaculate Heart for lectors. These workshops are open to ministers in all four of our parishes and we encourage you to attend.

Communal Celebration of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick It is important that those who are sick, and those around them, understand the significance of the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick as a sacrament of healing. Who should celebrate this sacrament?

the Anointing of the Sick as a sacrament of healing. Who should celebrate this sacrament?

- Those who are elderly and whose frailty is becoming more pronounced
- Those adults and children who are suffering from a major illness. (Illness comes in many different forms - physical, mental, psychological, emotional, spiritual)
- Those who are facing or recovering from surgery or serious medical tests
- Those suffering from a serious accident
- Those who suffer from chronic illness such as arthritis or diabetes
- Those who care for the sick, especially to those closely bound in love.

Join us on Thursday, Oct 26th at 9:30 a.m. for mass and the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick to be held at St. Bernard's Church.

All parishioners are encouraged to participate in this celebration.

Visit the Mosque Open House!

You are invited to visit the Moncton Mosque on Sunday, October 15th between 1:00 and 4:00 p.m. The mosque is located at 99 High Street, Moncton. Refreshments will be served. Everyone welcome!

To celebrate "50 years of Solidarity" of Development and Peace, the diocesan council of this organisation has the pleasure to invite you to a Eucharistic celebration on Sunday October 22nd, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. at Christ the King Church, 300 Dominion St, Moncton. This bilingual celebration will be presided by Mgr. Valery Vienneau and will feature the international choir from the University of Moncton. After the celebration, a small reception will be held in the basement of the church. It will be a pleasure to welcome you all for this thanksgiving, an occasion to thank all of you that support Development and Peace, an organisation of Canadian Bishops helping our brothers and sisters since October 1967.

Our next Theology on Tap for young adults 19-39 will take place on Sunday, Nov 5th at 3:30 p.m., with an expected finish time of 7:00 p.m. It will be facilitated by Karen LeBlanc and Claudette Derdaele from Immaculate Heart of Mary Church and is entitled "And God Saw That It Was Good". We will meet in the parking lot of Immaculate Heart of Mary in Riverview and then proceed to the Mill Creek area for the session. Participants are asked to bring with them their own mug and to dress for the weather (will need durable footwear such as boots).

For more information, please contact Trevor at the youth office at 857-4879.

Our next B4B selection for young adults 19-39 will be Little Bee, by Chris Cleave.

It is a dual narrative about a Nigerian asylum-seeker and a British magazine editor. The novel examines the treatment of refugees by the asylum system, as well as issues of British colonialism, globalization, political violence and personal accountability. We will meet to discuss the book on Saturday, November 25th at 10:00 a.m. Location TBA.

Exploring Our Faith

You Are Invited!

Today's readings reflect the themes of rejoicing, banquets and food. It seems that Isaiah sees this great banquet as a form of vindication for his people. Everything will be put right and all the people on earth will be able to see and acknowledge that God was indeed working in this people. We can see a picture of God that Jesus gives us: love and forgiveness, acceptance of all peoples. All are invited regardless of state in life, position in the community, material wealth, race, age or handicap.

However there are some requirements for us to "attend the banquet". In the parable, the king rejected the improperly dressed man because he did not regard this invitation as a great honour. He did not bother to "clothe himself" with the new self, in the likeness of God. The guests who were dressed in wedding garments recognized God's abundant love and forgiveness as a source of hope and strength and so they "clothed" themselves with this mercy.

We all have been invited to accept God's invitation to share His life, take part in His banquet. I recall, as a young child, coming home from school one day (Catholic grade school) and crying to my mom that my next-door neighbour/playmate wouldn't be able to go to heaven and it greatly upset me. When my mother inquired as to why I would ever think this I told her that she couldn't because she wasn't Catholic. My mother quickly assessed that I had misunderstood the interpretation of "many are called, few are chosen", then proceeded to explain that being Catholic didn't guarantee anyone a "place in Heaven"; that anyone who lived a good, caring life would be invited to share in God's banquet. Needless to say, I was relieved.

We don't have to attend Mass every day or spend hours praying in supplication. But we do have to recognize that the invitation is a great honour and we can "clothe ourselves" with acts that reflect our Catholic faith. For some it can be participating in regular Mass, taking time every day for prayer; for others: visiting the infirmed and elderly; making sure those who are lonely/depressed have company/comfort. We respond to His invitation by mirroring the image of Jesus by being a caring parent, loving mate, true friend. By fulfilling these "requirements", striving to do God's will and trusting in His love, we can accept God's invitation. We know what God has told us in Jesus Christ: I love you and I invite you to share my life.

Perhaps today we can pray that our hearts will always be open to hear the invitation and to respond to it. And we can work at loving others in the same way God loves us.

Cathy Keirstead
