With Sympathy

Today, we extend our deepest sympathies to Carol Benton on the loss of her mother, Nellie Bernard, and to Tom Cooney on the loss of his nephew, Patrick Cooney. May the peace of the Lord be with you and our families, especially at such a difficult time.

May the healing power of Christ breathe across all who are suffering and may we turn toward God in our pain, so that he can use our suffering to produce beauty and maturity of spirit.

The Way of the Cross 2018 - On Good Friday March 30th, the Way of the Cross will be celebrated at St. Bernard's Church at 7:00 p.m. We will pray the Way of the Cross that His Holiness, Pope Francis, prayed last year on Good Friday. All are welcome!

WAR!

Sunday morning, Turkish-backed rebels seized control of the Syrian city of Afrin. Dear parishioners, the families and loved ones of Mohamed and Zouzan Daoud were living in that city. Please pray for their safety and for their lives. Please pray for Mohamed and Zouzan who wait fearfully every minute of the day for news from their loved ones. Please pray for peace in Syria.

Chrism Mass - It is with great joy that I will preside at the Chrism Mass at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, March 27th at the Moncton Cathedral. This special Mass is a manifestation of our Church gathered with the shepherd of our Diocesan Church. All priests are invited to concelebrate the Eucharist and renew their commitment of service. Also, we will proceed with the consecration of the Holy Chrism and the blessing of the oils for the sick and the catechumens. Welcome to all.

Exploring our Faith

"I will never...."

Always and Never. Two words, which, I frequently argue, should probably be removed from the English language. Of course, this is usually during a heated discussion with my husband: "I have never done that," or "You always say that." Still, I would suggest that at the very least, we need to be more circumspect in our use of them.

The Passion of Our Lord Jesus Christ gives one much to chew on – not least of which is the rapid movement of Jesus being hailed with adulation heard in the first Gospel of Palm Sunday, to being ridiculed and criminalized by the second. Recently Sr. Nuala Kenny, author of the book Rediscovering the Art of Dying, stated that for 4 months she read and reflected on the Passion every day, which led to her writing the book. Clearly, there is much to ponder.

Maybe because of a recent always/never conversation with Wayne though, Peter's use of similar words in the Passion reading, Mark's version of which we hear proclaimed today, is what speaks to me now: "Even though I must die with you, I will not deny you," he says to Jesus. (Some translations use the word 'never.')

And yet he does. When Peter says 'never,' he means it. When I say it, I mean it. But 'always' and 'never' are long times.

With the greatest of intentions on the part of humans, we regularly fail in our promises. God, however, does not. God tells Noah in Genesis that he will 'never' again destroy the earth. While we humans seem intent on doing just that, raising concern among environmentalists that we may finally succeed in these efforts, the earth pushes back against our pillage of it. A recent trip to Hawaii has given me strong evidence of that in lush vegetation that no amount of concrete can contain. Jesus tells us at the end of Matthew's Gospel that he will 'always' be with us – through our own experience of it, many can attest to the abiding presence of God in our lives. In John's Gospel, Jesus tells the Samaritan woman that those who drink from the water he gives will 'never' be thirsty. After the feeding of the 5000, he tells his disciples that he is the Bread of Life, with which we will 'never' be hungry. After the death of his friend Lazarus, he asks Lazarus' sister Martha, if she believes that those who believe and live in him will 'never' die. Faith helps us to hope and see that this is so.

Peter, the first to know and name Jesus as the Messiah; Peter, to whom Jesus left the responsibility of building his Church; Peter, one of the inner circle of the Apostles - Peter knows more than most, the unconditional and unending love, mercy and forgiveness of God; passionate, bumbling Peter. And Peter, in recognition that he has failed in this promise, as per Jesus' prediction that he would, weeps bitterly. So have I.

Yet Peter did fulfill his promise to Jesus. In the end, he died a martyr's death for his belief in Christ – ultimately, his promise to 'never' deny Jesus was kept. I will work on my never and always ... once again.

IN MEMORY OF...

We are accepting donations for environment in our churches during the Easter season, in memory of deceased family and friends. A list will be printed in the bulletin of those being remembered. On a piece of paper, please write who is being remembered, by whom and for which Church, and put this information and your donation in an envelope. Just drop it into the parish office, or put it in the collection basket, clearly marked Easter Flowers.

If it's easier for you, you can just call the office and let us know of you that you want to make a donation.

New Permanent Deacon

As is the case for many Catholic dioceses throughout Canada, the Archdiocese of Moncton has called upon a few of its faithful to share the Gospel of Christ as permanent deacons. The Church of Moncton is indeed happy to announce our first ordination. It will take place on Saturday, April 14th, at 10:00 a.m. when the candidate, André Deveaux, ready to accept the mission entrusted to him by his bishop, will become a deacon. The celebration, presided over by the Most Reverend Valéry Vienneau, will be held at Ste-Thérèse Church in Dieppe. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this happy event.

Attention All! Good Friday's Family Prayer Experience will be on Good Friday March 30th at 9:00 a.m. Bring your family and Walk with Jesus through Holy Week. Can you guess the stations along the walk? Hint – Station 2 will be the Last Supper! (Please note that there will not be the Adoration of the Cross)

ATTENTION ALL! We are in need of blankets for this "Walk with Jesus" family event. We can borrow them or we can donate them to a shelter after we use them. Soooooo....if you have any blankets just lying around and would like to lighten your load, please bring them in to the Catechism office and we can put them to good use!

Also we are in need of brown or beige tarps (should be fairly clean). We will use these for both the "Walk with Jesus" and the Vacation Bible School in June so we could borrow them or if you wanted to donate one, that would be good too.
