Easter
April 22nd, 2018*

Today, we pray for Winnie Smith and Brenda-Lee, Angela and Juanita on the death of their loving husband and father, Harold Smith and also for the family and loved ones of Ivan Sawyer, brother-in-law of Marcel and Donald Beaulieu and Lillian Gauvin. May God give you the comfort that you seek and may the soul of your loved ones, rest in the arms of Jesus.

Please pray today for Bina Standing and for Bernie Touesnard. May God's healing and blessings be upon each of them, today and every day.

Sunday Evenings in May

May is the month in our tradition where we pay special attention to Mary. Actually, for centuries the Catholic Church has set aside the entire month of May to honour Mary, Mother of God. Not just a day in May, mind you, but the entire month. With that in mind, at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church we will be holding prayer liturgies each Sunday evening in May at 6:30 p.m. Stay tuned for more information as May draws closer.

Stewardship is recognizing that everything we have and everything we are is a gift from God. And we are to be grateful for what he has given us, not to keep everything for only ourselves but to share those gifts with our faith community and others so that everyone has a share in God's good graces.

Exploring our Faith

The Good Shepherd

Today's gospel on the theme of the Good Shepherd is a familiar one to us all as are the words "I know my own and my own know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father." I've been told that sheep prefer to be led. You lead sheep and they will not go anywhere that someone else does not go first. They become attached to and trusting of their shepherds. The sheep know the distinctive sounds and calls the shepherd makes; the shepherd learns to understand all the sheep's moves. The lesson from the gospel is that we are the sheep of God's flock; there is a possibility that we have a Shepherd who cares for us, whom we can trust, who calls us each by name and is at work shaping and guiding our lives.

Are we the sheep of His flock? Probably some of us rule ourselves out of the flock because we assume that must mean we are somehow in constant touch with God. In order to remain in the flock do we have to understand and believe every word in the Creeds and live saintly lives? I think, from what I've garnered over the years, that all it takes is to be willing to be with the flock and to listen to the voice of this Shepherd. A "flock member" can be that someone who encourages another when he/she is tempted to give it all up, to forget it all, to just walk away in despair. That someone who discourages another when he/she moves too rashly in unclear directions. That someone who knows when to help and when to just be 'available' if help is needed. As flock members we can listen to the voice from the heart calling, encouraging, challenging, and guiding.

I remember one special nun from my Catholic elementary school years, who called us "her little lambkins". I was very young but I knew she wanted to keep us safe while we were learning our ABCs, and she cared for us while in her care. She mirrored, by her example, the "teachings" of the Good Shepherd. Like a shepherd who cares for his sheep, God cares for each of us. Each of us is willed, each of us is loved, and each of us is necessary.

The image of shepherds is that they are kind, loving, patient, strong and self-sacrificing. They are a good image of Jesus. And sheep, which can at times be rather stupid and foolish, can be a symbol for us at times. Jesus does not scold those who wander off or lose their way, but is always ready to bring us back and resolve differences and disagreements.

The flock that Jesus is the Good Shepherd of is bigger, more diverse, more abundant than we can imagine. It's as big as love. May we live within that flock and be guided and shaped by the Shepherd, with joy, with courage, and with hope.

When shopping is fundraising!

As y'all know, we're looking to increase our fundraising dollars in each of our churches and to do so, we're looking for 4 families from each parish to commit to buying $100/week in grocery cards. We've been talking about this since mid-March but don't quite have all the new families yet. For each church, four new families would bring in yes, that's right, close to $1000 for each parish in just one year! It doesn't get any easier than this! We have both Sobey's and Loblaws cards so please give Anne a call at the parish office, 386-6178 for more details and thank you for considering this terrific way to fundraise.

Your parish needs you!

other unknown factors.

Each time we attend Mass, we may notice people taking part in various roles or functions. In doing so, they are participating in "liturgical ministry," using their talents or "gifts" in service to the parish community. Many of our communities are seeing dwindling involvement in ministry, including lectors, communion ministers, greeters and ushers (hospitality), servers, musicians and singers. This may be due to age, illness, relocation, or

In response to this reality, a Liturgical Ministry Information Session will be offered to assist and inform those who would like to serve their community in this manner but are unsure of the talents/gifts/skill necessary to be an effective liturgical minister.

The session will be held on May 1st, from 7-8:30pm, at Holy Family Church. (This is also open to those already involved who may be questioning or considering a different ministry.)

The evening will be facilitated by Deb Gillespie, Liturgy Coordinator for the English parishes of the Archdiocese of Moncton, and Mark Mahoney, Pastoral Associate for St. Elizabeth of the Trinity. To register, contact: Deb at: liturgymoncton@gmail.com, or Mark Mahoney at: markmahoney@rogers.com or 386-6178.

Not Getting an Answer, But We'd Be More Informed About the Question

To continue our reflection and conversation around the complex issue of Medically Assisted Death, Dr. Andrew Wilson is presenting Returning to Dust: Reappraising Death and Dying in Catholicism. In his session, Andrew will explore the Church's beliefs and attitudes about death through her history, paying particular attention to the ethical questions around this.

The session takes place on Thursday, May 10th from 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. at the Dan Bohan Centre. Andrew is an associate professor of Religious Education at Mount Allison University and a frequent presenter for the Office of Faith Development. Should you plan to attend, we ask that you please register with Ellen prior to May 10th.

Peacemaking – Not for the Faint-Hearted

Guided Weekend Retreat with Gloria Ulterino from Friday, May 4th - Sunday, May 6th, 2018 at Villa Madonna Retreat House in Rothesay. Retreat begins with registration Friday at 4:00 p.m. and concludes with lunch on Sunday.

Peacemaking is not for the faint-hearted, but true peacemakers are blessed. They are subject to persecution and being misunderstood. They are most often underappreciated. Those who broker spiritual and social peace together are children of God, of course, for Jesus is the Prince of Peace and he is our brother. So, what we need now more than ever are peacemakers - people of character who know how to reconcile people to God and to one another. Souls are at war. People are at war. Peace is a calling. Let's start actively living it out. Be blessed. Don't be unsettled by the consequences. You are in good company- Jesus and the saints.

Gloria Ulterino, an active Catholic laywoman, is a preacher, storyteller, and leader of the Well storytelling group in Rochester, New York. She has led the services in this book in parishes and retreat settings in Western New York, at national gatherings, and with various other groups since 1998. She holds masters degrees in Divinity, Theology, American History, and is the author of numerous articles on pastoral ministry. Cost: $230.00 single; $390.00 couple; $135.00 commuter. A non-refundable deposit of $75.00 payable to Villa Madonna is due with your registration; remainder is due at time of arrival. TO REGISTER please contact Villa Madonna by calling toll free 1-866-783-3300.
