with Sympathy

We pray for the family of Bill Roul, brother of Wally Roul and also for those mourning Ron Lowry, brother of the late Sandra Cluney. May those grieving take comfort in knowing that their loved ones are now at peace.

For those who are sick, may the Lord who is the source of all strength, be always at your side. Together, we wrap our prayers around Kimberly Ann Gauvin, daughter-in-law of Lillianne Gauvin and for David Purdy, father of Karen LeBlanc.

The fundamental principle of biblical stewardship is that God owns everything and that we are simply managers or administrators acting on his behalf. Echoing Deuteronomy 8:17, we might say: "My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me." But Deuteronomy 8:18 counsels us to think otherwise:

Remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth.

Deacon Leo Penney and "Chalice"

During the weekend Masses of September 29th and 30th we will welcome Deacon Leo Penney and his wife, Viola. Serving in the Parish of St. Leonard in New Waterford, N.S., both Leo and Viola work as chaplains at their local hospital. During the homilies of that weekend, Leo will speak to us about Chalice, a Canadian, Catholic sponsorship program that provides education, nutrition, and health care to nearly 50, 000 children in 15 developing countries. Some of you may already be sponsoring a child through Chalice and may remember Deacon Leo from a previous visit. If you want more information about Chalice, simply go to chalice.ca.

The crisis in Syria requires a global response if there is to be an end to the war and the suffering of their people. Development and Peace has been campaigning for peace in Syria by calling on the Canadian government to do everything in its power to protect civilians and to end the conflict through diplomatic means. It has also joined the Caritas Internationalis campaign

Syria: Peace is Possible, which was launched with an important message from Pope Francis. Elsewhere in the world, every 31 minutes someone is forced to flee their home. Forced migration must stop!

Watch your bulletin, in future weeks, and find out what you can do to solve this world crisis. Development and Peace, Caritas Canada: Dan Stote 204-3651 / danstote@yahoo.com

St. Bartholomew's Church, Melrose - The final Eucharistic Celebration will be held September 16th at 2:00 p.m.

Exploring our Faith

"What good is it if you say you have faith but do not have works? Can faith save you?" In these words James teaches that faith must be demonstrated by works. The basic idea is that what is the good of going to church then walking out and not 'doing' anything in between attendance at Mass? In the second reading, James also says, "Someone will say, you have faith and I have works. Show me your faith apart from your works and I, by my works, will show you my faith."

Pope Francis has stated, "When faith is lived and shown in service to others then many doubts vanish because we feel the presence of God and the truth of the Gospel in the love that, by no merit of ours, lives in us and that we share with others."

The "works" that we can show as an example of our faith can be simple acts of support and encouragement, shown quietly and unobtrusively. It can manifest itself through an understanding smile, a willingness to listen patiently for a couple of minutes during a busy day, being unwilling to spread gossip/rumors about others, an encouraging word, treating each other with respect and dignity. You don't necessarily have to 'schedule' love/faith, though. It should be a reflex - a natural act. Small, seemingly mundane things can have an extraordinary significance. One doesn't have to fly to a foreign country and play with children less fortunate...just be faithful in the little things. Simple "works" demonstrate our Catholic faith in action in our lives.

Faith is technically a noun, but in reality it is a verb - a call to action. Faith isn't faith unless it is expressed and lived. When you exhibit your faith in the little things as well as the big things in life two things happen :

- 1) Your faith grows. When you see faith in action you can't help but want more action.
- 2) Others can't help but notice. When you live your faith, people notice. When people notice, your faith and your works are a testimony to the Good News of the Gospel. When that happens, you have faith in God and are faithful to Him.

Faith requires a steady, daily dependence on the character and teachings of God. It is a long-term commitment. Keeping faith is about community also. The Christian life is not lived exclusively between God and the individual, rather, it is lived in community with others, in our daily contacts with family, friends, co-workers, service people, etc. With these "works" we can keep the faith by remembering God's faithfulness and continuing to grow in relationship with Him. With His help, we can be examples of a people "who, by our works, will show you our faith."

Grief and Prayer

In light of the sad and disturbing revelations concerning the abuse of minors by members of the clergy, I feel it is necessary to have an evening where we can express our individual and collective grief. Along with the obvious pain and long-lasting harm experienced by the victims themselves, we are all carrying some pain. Please join us on Monday, September 17th at 7 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church where, through grief sharing and ritual, we will try to create a forum to express our disappointment, frustration, shame, and even anger over the harm done to so many young people over the years. We will also lift up our bruised and battered Church to God seeking forgiveness and healing. And lastly, we will give thanks to God who, through the Spirit of his Risen Son, has promised, "I am with you until the end of the ages."
