with Sympathy

We pray for the families of loved ones of those who have died, including Evelyn Craig, mother of Annette Radtke, for those mourning the passing of Sophie Neil, sister of Doris Leblanc and for those grieving the loss of Karen Conde, daughter of Dave Conde.

We also pray for those who are sick; for Winnie Smith, for Peter and Catherine Mulder and for Kimberly Ann Gauvin, daughter-in-law of Lillianne Gauvin. May God touch you and your families with his healing hand and give you all the comfort and peace you need to get through.

There's a movement going on in the church today—a movement back to true, biblical stewardship. By definition, a steward is one who manages the possessions of another. We are all stewards of the resources, abilities and opportunities that God has entrusted to our care.

We are not owners; we are managers; we are stewards.

*This is taught to us by the Parable of the Talents

All the information is developed and ready to go but we need ideas and ways to get it out! So please, all parishioners, tell your friends about Development and Peace Caritas Canada, ask them to pass the message around and consider helping Dan with the social media side of things! OUTCASTS – Movie Night!

Tickets are now on sale for the screening of the faith-based movie “Outcasts”. Movie Night will take place at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church on Sunday, November 18th at 3:30 p.m. The tickets are $15 each or 4/$50. It is for mature audiences only. To view the trailer, go to www.outcaststhemovie.com.

It is costly to bring the movie here, so we really need to have a firm commitment by November 9th as to whether there is enough interest. You can inquire about getting your tickets from Roberto (962-1665), Joseph (233-1767) or from Anne (386-6178) at the parish office. Please let us know sooner rather than later as there is a lot of planning involved. Hope we get a good crowd!

Exploring our Faith

Hungry Sinners

Back in the summers of 1982 and 1983, I convinced parishioners from my home parish to join me on the weekends to serve at St. Bridget's Soup Kitchen in Ottawa's Byward Market. This image entitled "Christ of the Breadlines" hung on one of the walls and it has stayed in my mind for the past 35 years. Though a print, the original was an engraving by the late Fritz Eichenberg (1901 - 1990). Fritz was a Jew from Cologne, Germany who left Europe in 1933 when Hitler came to power. Landing in America, he became an illustrator and wood engraver. After Fritz's wife died in 1937, he explored other religions and eventually became a Christian with the Religious Society of Friends (Quakers). In time, he became friends with Dorothy Day and frequently contributed illustration in Day's newspaper, the Catholic Worker. His best-known works were concerned with religion, social justice and nonviolence. Eichenberg's "Christ of the Breadlines" along with "The Lord's Supper" (Google these for a better look) speak to me about Jesus' wide, all-inclusive guest list. Jesus tells us to go out to the highways and byways to invite any and all to his banquet. It seems that hunger was the only criteria Jesus looked for when he ate with the tax collectors, the lepers, the poor, the outcasts, and the prostitutes.

If Christ fed the likes of these, and we are supposed to be the Body of Christ, should we not do the same? Apart from their hunger, the only other common feature was that they were all sinners. "Hungry sinners" ---that's who they were. That's who we are. The gathering of hungry sinners is still the best description for Eucharistic. Most often sinners are hungrier than "saints".

God provides the food; we provide the hunger. I long for the day when we as Church would welcome "hungry sinners" to share in the Table as readily as Jesus did. Or will small questions concerning denomination or annulments continue to crowd out the bigger question... "Are you hungry?"
