Stewardship

"How shall I make a return to the Lord for the good he has done for me?" Psalm 116:12

The foundation of stewardship is prayer; talking and listening to God every day, all throughout the day. Stewardship means putting complete trust in God, in all things. Stewardship means sharing all of our gifts, especially that one that means the most to you. By sharing all of our gifts, it helps us keep God first in everything, from putting other "gods" before God. It helps us live "God-centered" lives and not "self-centered" lives.

Prayer shawls have been made for centuries and are a symbol of an unconditionally loving God. The shawl makers offer prayers and blessings for the recipient while knitting and/or crocheting and upon completion, the shawl is given a final blessing by Fr Phil or Fr Charlie. These lovely shawls can be of great comfort to those undergoing medical procedures, after a loss or in times of stress, during bereavement, prayer or meditation, commitment or marriage ceremonies, birthing, nursing a baby, bridal shower or wedding gift, during an illness or while in recovery, ministering to others, etc – there are endless possibilities! The group gets together on the last Tuesday of the month at 7:00 p.m. at the Dan Bohan Centre. A wonderful evening of fellowship and friendship, while they work on prayer shawls and prayer cloths.

The Prayer Shawl Ministry will next meet on Tuesday, October 30th at the Dan Bohan Centre at 7:00 p.m.

Everyone is asked to bring their shawls and works-in-progress for an evening of sharing and caring!

Thank you to everyone who signed a Development and Peace Action Card! Thank you for being willing to "to stand up and be counted" and so to ask our representatives on the National and International scene to address the root causes of forced migration, to provide humanitarian aid for refugees and their host country and to invest more in diplomatic and peaceful solutions to armed conflicts. This is the vision of Canada that I am proud to show the world and I'm sure you feel the same! "No one should be forced to flee their home".

As a thank you, we did a draw at each church for a $25 grocery card. Congratulations to Maria Howe at IHM, Bill Morano at Holy Family, Brent Gallant at St. Jude's and James Campbell at Holy Ghost. And to those who brought their card home and mailed it themselves, thank you! I think it's fair to say that we are all winners with this effort!

Didn't sign a card yet? Please pick one up at your church and send it in!

Canada will stand up! Let your voice be heard!

Contact Dan Stote at 204-3651 or danstote@yahoo.com or call the Parish office at 386-6178!

Share the Journey: No one should be forced to flee their home!

The Town of Riverview will hold a ceremony at 10:50 a.m. on Sunday, November 11th at Immaculate Heart of Mary to commemorate Remembrance Day. A reception hosted by the Knights of Columbus will follow the ceremony at the Dan Bohan Family Centre in honour of our veterans.

This means that on November 11th, the regular Sunday Mass at 11:00 a.m. will be held at Holy Family Church.

Exploring our Faith

“Take heart; get up, he is calling you.”

“What do you want me to do for you?” Jesus asks his disciples in last week’s gospel and again of Bartimaeus in today’s. Their responses couldn’t be more different. The disciples showed that even though they had been with Jesus for a while, they still didn’t understand his purpose or message, for they asked for positions of privilege in his new “kingdom.” Bartimaeus, on the other hand, knew who Jesus was and answered simply, “My teacher, let me see again.”

When Scripture refers to “sight,” it is rarely just about the physical ability to see but more about a person’s understanding and attitude. In all the years that I’ve heard this gospel, it wasn’t until this year that I caught the detail that Bartimaeus was not born blind as others Jesus had cured. For reasons unknown to us, Bartimaeus had lost his sight and now wished to see “again.”

So often things happen in our life that change our outlook on life and we become blind to God’s grace and mercy in our world. Someone we love dies, and we lose all sense of hope or joy. An injury is done to us, and we see life through a veil of anger or bitterness. We have been rejected, and we can no longer see ourselves as worthy of love. We are inundated with bad news, and we view the needs of humanity with a numb apathy. Our joy, sense of purpose and ability to see God’s goodness in the world around us is lost.

Bartimaeus shows us that we can restore this life-giving vision. By calling out to Jesus as “Son of David,” we know that he understood that Jesus was the Messiah and that Jesus has the power to make him well. Bartimaeus risks the insults and reprimands of others to ask Jesus for help. He drops his cloak (probably one of his few possessions) to reach Jesus and leaves it behind to follow him. He teaches us that to see the world with the eyes and mind of Christ, we may have to risk being vulnerable and discomforted. We may need to drop mental walls and change the attitudes we have used to protect ourselves. To love again, is to risk being hurt again. To see ourselves as valuable and beloved, we need to trust that God loves us as we are. To see the goodness or the needs of those around us, we must let go of anger and prejudices so that we are able recognize that God also lives and works in them. To feel hope again, we must have the courage to step out into our messy world and become that hope in action. Seeing the world with the mind and heart of Christ takes trust and courage.

Each time we call on Jesus in prayer, he asks us, “What do you want me to do for you?” Do we respond like the disciples or like Bartimaeus? What “cloaks” of comfort and self-protection are we willing to leave behind so that we may see and live life with the eyes of God’s love, hope and promise? Jesus assures us that the reward will far surpass the risk.

October is World Mission Month!

Thank you very much for using the blue (or bringing back the white) envelope in support of last week’s World Mission Sunday collection. This support is a blessing for the Bishops, the Priests, the Sister, the Brothers and the lay catechists who depend on this help from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith. Please continue to pray for those who serve in mission countries so that they may remain steadfast in their vocation to bring Christ’s message of love to those they serve.

Harvest House is hoping that you will be able to help them with gently used or new blankets, comforters and socks! Also, there is always a need for toiletries and right now... coffee mugs! If you have any of these items to give, look for the bin in the foyer of IHM.

Thank you to everyone who has already donated to this wonderful cause. We will keep the bin in the foyer throughout the month of October!

ALL SAINTS - ALL SOULS

Each year, just as the harvest is finished in much of the world, Christians keep their own harvest, that is, God's harvest. On November 1st, we celebrate All Saints' Day, the harvest of the Saints. We are offered the tremendous opportunity to celebrate our communion with the saints in heaven and to honour their holy lives by our presence at Mass. This year, on November 5th, we will celebrate All Souls' Day when, in a special way, in our parish grouping, we will remember those we loved who were buried from our churches in the past year.

This year, our All Souls' celebration will be at Holy Family Church on Monday, November 5th at 7:00 p.m. and we encourage all to come and remember those who have gone before us.

Throughout the month of November, a table will be set up in each Church to display the pictures of those buried from our churches this past year and candles will be lit for each at every Mass in November.

OUTCASTS

Have you got your tickets yet?

OUTCASTS

OUTCASTS the Movie!

On Sunday, November 18th at 3:30 p.m. Immaculate Heart of Mary Church will host the screening of the faith-based film, Outcasts. Seven years in the making, this award-winning movie documents the hard struggle of the poor, living in five different countries across the globe. It is a powerful, disturbing, beautiful and inspiring account of the work of the ministry of the Franciscan Friars, whose apostolic mission it is to serve the poor. This is a film about Social Justice; a movie that unlocks the door of human suffering and offers hope for the greatest needs of mankind. The tickets are $15 each or 4 for $50. It is for mature audiences only. To view the trailer, go to www.outcaststhemovie.com.

You can inquire about getting your tickets from Roberto (962-1665), Joseph (233-1767) or from Anne (386-6178) at the parish office. Please let us know sooner rather than later as there is a lot of planning involved. Hope we get a good crowd!

Fr. Phil and the entire Retreat Team would like to thank all parishioners who provided the hundreds and hundreds of used greeting cards that allowed Jeanne McMahon to use her creativity to turn those cards into a wonderful fundraising effort! Jeanne recreated cards, made gift tags and selected incredible cards to be framed, asking only a donation for her efforts. By your generosity and Jeanne's hard work, $500 was raised to put towards the November Adult Faith Retreat! Merci beaucoup, Jeanne!

Did you know?

Joining a growing community of Canadian schools, churches and businesses, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church collects plastic milk bags. (the bags that hold the three smaller bags of milk) Some IHM parishioners join residents at a nursing home in Moncton and they cut these bags into strips, tie them together, and then weave or crochet them into sleeping mats! One parishioner even makes pillows with the scraps! Each adult-sized mat is made of approximately 420 milk bags and has a lifespan of about 25 years! These mats are waterproof, bug-proof and can be easily washed and dried! They are even colourful. ☺ (think about it....bags for 4% milk are red, 2% is darker blue, 1% and skim are different blues, chocolate is brown and on and on!)

First and foremost, the milk bag mats offer people without beds, an invaluable, durable and washable alternative to sleeping on the cold, damp ground. This is a wonderful initiative too, because it gives a purpose to something that would otherwise go to landfill and it provides volunteers with a wonderful way to give back. The nursing home residents get together weekly to create these mats and it's a wonderful social and purposeful activity. It's just awesome all the way around!

If you buy milk in the bags (don't all Maritimers do that? ☺), please consider dropping those colourful plastic gems into the bin found in the IHMC foyer. Thank you!
