Development and Peace Caritas Canada Needs Your Help With the Fall Educational Campaign!

Share the Journey: No one should be forced to flee their home!

This week your bulletin insert presents three stories of ordinary people forced to leave their homes. The Hossein family forced to leave their home in Myanmar, along with 687,000 children, women and men fleeing to escape violence and persecution against them. In Nigeria Africa, Patience is forced from her home by a huge cloud of black smoke resulting from an oil spill, causing her water be undrinkable and serious illness in the months to come. "All we want is to go home". In Syria, Aysha is living in a makeshift refugee camp with her four children. The armed conflict in her home land made it impossible to remain." What I miss most about Syria is my house, my homeland, my mother and my father. "I haven't seen them for five years."

Please take the time to read these stories and then follow up with the testimonials on the Development and Peace fall campaign 2018 website. Development and Peace Caritas Canada, with local partners, provide immediate assistance and long-term solutions. You can share the journey! They don't have to be alone!

October is World Mission Month!

"Go! Make disciples of all nations." (Matthew 28:19) These words – the imperative mission of Christ – call each baptized Catholic to action. The Church has a lasting mission to perform in this world, a mission that is ever more apparent and the need for it is ever more urgent. In fact, mission isn't something the Church does. It is what the Church is!

This year, World Mission Sunday is on October 21st. This is a worldwide collection for the missionary Church that offers emergency aid when disaster strikes, cares for refugees in war-torn countries, provides rural health clinics and transportation for Priests, catechists, religious and lay pastoral workers. It offers financial support for the daily needs of all missionaries. Please pray for the missions and be generous on World Mission Sunday.

Exploring our Faith

Is My Faith Alive?

In preparing for this reflection, I had to pause and think a lot about our readings. I realised that it must be difficult to preach today's Gospel. We live in a time where divorce is a common and acceptable practice. We've all heard the statistics, over 50% of marriages end in divorce and over 65% of second marriages end in divorce. I want to particularly focus on the beauty of what God did for man when he created the woman.

In this account of our creation, we're told that the woman was made from "the bones of my bones and the flesh of my flesh". We're told that God took one rib from the man to make him a partner and from that rib he created the woman. She was created so that the man would not be alone, so that the man had a helper and a partner. This speaks first about the relationship between man and woman and their original unity. Woman, therefore, was created as a complement to man, as an integral part of man, and as a powerful and influential companion for man. This creation account also speaks to a spiritual ideal: that those united in marriage really are "one". We all should know how difficult it is to become one and remain true to oneself. This becoming one does not imply diminishment, as though the woman disappears into the man, or vice versa. Rather, something new is created, which is an increased greatness for the two who have become one.

To quote Pope Benedict XVI - Vatican City, 26 January 2013: "The Code of Canon Law defines the natural reality of marriage as the irrevocable covenant between a man and a woman. Mutual trust, in fact, is the indispensable basis of any agreement or covenant. On a theological level, the relationship between faith and marriage has an even deeper meaning. Even though a natural reality, the spousal bond between two baptised persons has been elevated by Christ to the dignity of a sacrament." For any of us, the challenge of this Sunday and its readings is very simple: Is my faith alive? Do I really seek the living God? Does my life reflect a living relationship with God and a constant striving to understand His word and put it into action in my life?

A Call for Compassion

Over the past month or so, our entire parish grouping has read information in the bulletin about fellow parishioner, Alma Hamilton and her husband Jamie Hamilton. For anyone who might have missed their story:

In May 2017, while visiting family in the Philippines, Alma and Jamie were asked a life-changing question. A niece, a young mother of two, was dying of kidney disease and she asked Alma and Jamie if they would be willing to adopt her two young children. Her request was to see 6-year old Kisha and 5-year old Carlos raised in Canada with two loving parents and a brand new life. It absolutely was, a life-changing question. Alma and Jamie returned home to Riverview and their decision was made - they would begin the lengthy and complicated international adoption process.

They are now coming to the final stages of that process and over these past 16 months have seen costs continue to mount. Most notably, by law, they must both return to the Philippines together this fall in order to be able to bring the children home to Canada. This is where we come in! If anyone wishes to offer support and encouragement to the Hamilton family, you are invited to do so by making a financial contribution to assist with the legal and travel expenses (use your church envelope and just mark 'Hamiltons' on the envelope with the amount) or you can come by the Parish Office. You can also offer words of encouragement and of course, let's all keep them in your prayers!

We are committed to the health and well-being of all those who make up our faith community and there is a growing understanding that the health of some people is negatively affected when they are exposed to smells and scented products. It's sad to imagine that some products one person is using may be making someone else sick! Please remember "We Share the Air" and so let us care for each other by eliminating the use of scented personal care products when at church.

Community

The Moncton Hospital School of Nursing has a limited number of tickets for members of our parish grouping who might like to attend the 2018 Katherine Wright Memorial Lecture. You can call Mae Smith (386-4846) to inquire about the tickets and also, she will be in the foyer of Immaculate Heart of Mary after Mass this Sunday.
