with Sympathy

We pray for all who mourn the loss of Nimfa Quilbio as she is lovingly returned to her homeland in the Philippines. We also pray for the family and friends of Theresa Deveau and for all grieving the passing of Hollis Hicks and for those who mourn the loss of Fr. Normand Godbout, brother of Victor Godbout. May each of those hurting find strength in God's love at this difficult time.

And we pray to bring healing and peace to those who are sick and to their caregivers and especially today we pray for Charlie O'Hara, for Kevin Dockrill and for Kimberly Ann Gauvin, daughter-in-law of Lillianne Gauvin.

Exploring our Faith

Faith – Belief... Any Difference?

As we head toward the end of our liturgical year, our readings focus on the "end times". In today's gospel, Jesus sets the stage for what we can expect to see when the time for his second coming is upon us. "The sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light." This, to me, sounds like utter darkness; and pretty scary too. When we think about "the end", either of the world or of our own life, it can fill us with fear. That seems like a strange thing for a person of faith to say. After all, I thought the whole purpose of faith was to replace fear.

Reflecting on this gospel, and other passages like it, I have been forced to wrestle with what exactly it is I believe, for I have come to learn that belief and faith are not the same thing. One of the best analogies I have heard to describe this is the story of a man who is a tourist at Niagara Falls. As he is walking around and taking in the beauty of the Falls, he comes upon a person who is about to walk across the Falls on a tight rope. The person says to the man, "Do you believe I can walk across these Falls on a tight rope?" The man replies, "Yes". The tightrope walker then asks, "Do you want to get on my shoulders?"

I have always been able to articulate my beliefs with, at times, rather eloquent words. I think that's something people who spend time in leadership in the Church get good at. But, in the end, those are just words. And while words can be inspiring, I don't think they will give me the peace I will be searching for in the dark moments of my life (and death). More and more, what my mother told me when I was a kid, that faith is a gift, is ringing true. I have been blessed to journey with a few faith-filled people who knew that death was imminent. Some entered it with a peace that was palpable, while others struggled with fear. While I like to think that my faith will be strong in my end times, the truth is, I really won't know until that time comes.

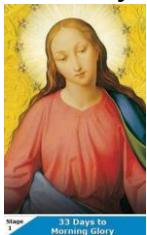

So, for now, I need to focus on what gives me hope. One of the things that gives me hope is the next line in the gospel after the picture of darkness is painted: "Then we will see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory." Jesus is always the light at the end of every dark tunnel in my life. I have to be bold enough to have faith that the light is not the train coming the other way, but rather, it is the place where I will find peace. I think we are all searching for just a little bit of certainty when facing trying times or the unknown. Well, there are two things I know for certain: there is no place we will go in life or death where Jesus hasn't already been, and, no matter where our journey takes us, we are never alone. The End.

Loving Memory

Again this year, we are accepting donations in memory of deceased family and friends for Christmas season environment in the churches. A list will be printed in the bulletin of those being remembered. The easiest way is to call the Parish Office (386-6178) and then put your donation in a clearly marked envelope and drop it in the collection basket. Please note that we need to know who is being remembered and by whom, and please identify the church. Thank you.

"Behold your Mother"

As the season of advent is approaching, what better way to prepare our hearts to receive Jesus more fully, than to follow in the footsteps of His mother as she waits in Hope, Peace, Joy and Love for her Son. Through personal daily readings and a weekly group meeting, journey with us as we learn from four amazing Saints, the gift Jesus gave us in His Beloved Mother and discover how Mary will transform your heart this advent season! Come and learn how to model Mary's YES!

Meetings will be held on Wednesday evenings from 7:00 - 8:30 p.m. on November 28th, December 5th, 12th, 19th and 26th with our Consecration to be held on the Solemnity of the Mother of God, January 1st.

Visit www.allheartsafire.org/33-days-to-morning-glory/overview.html to find the two books needed for this event or place your order with Tiffany via email before November 14th.

If you are interested in taking part in the 33 Days of Morning Glory Marian Consecration, please contact Tiffany at goodtiffany@hotmail.com or at 863-3427.

A financial assessment may be required, if your family has not already had that done at the Food Bank this year. Also, for those wishing to visit Headstart Toyland, an appointment will be assigned at this time. Only one family per address can be registered and please note that you cannot register for another family. Act now, as you will only be able to register for Albert County Christmas Aid up to December 7th!

ATTENTION EVERYONE: We will be making Advent wreaths in the Dan Bohan Centre on Sunday, December 2nd right after Mass. Bring your family and your garden sheers! It's a great way to start the Advent Season. There is a cost of $ 5.00 per wreath.

Save the Dates – Family Events!

Church Bulletins!

We've had our new bulletin format for almost one year now and advertisers on the bulletin signed on for one year and so right now, there is a small window of time (deadline is November 20th) where new advertisers will be able to sign on. If you own a business or know of a credible company that may benefit from this advertising, please call Shani Court at 506-875-1962 or you can email her at church.bulletin.advertising@gmail.com. The advertising on the back of the bulletin really is an effective local way to advertise in a highly credible venue. We print 500+ bulletins every single week and so our bulletins go out to that many households 52 weeks a year and provide a good advertising location. Also, as we have all year long, we encourage our parishioners to support these advertisers, as they are supporting our parish grouping!

Camino de Santiago - For anyone who may have missed Al Daly's Camino presentation last June, he will do another on Sunday, December 2nd at 7:00 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, if there is enough interest. Using words and pictures, Al will describe his amazing pilgrimage walk – the Camino de Santiago, that is, the Way of Saint James. If you've not heard of this pilgrimage before, it takes place in northwestern Spain and has been a Catholic pilgrimage route since the 9th century!! Al's walk ended in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela where tradition has it, that the remains of Saint James are buried. Please call Al at 386-2563 to let him know if you are interested.

United Codiac Refugee Committee (UCRC) - New Family Arriving on Tuesday, November 20th!

Yes, you read that correctly! Our new family from Iraq is arriving this Tuesday! The members of this family of seven (Mom, Dad and five children) have been refugees in Jordan for the past five years. The good news is that our UCRC volunteers have secured a duplex for them and are currently collecting furnishings! Once the family arrives, we know that we will need volunteers to provide a variety of support. Please, if you have questions or if you can offer support for this new family, contact Claudette Derdaele (derdaelec@gmail.com) or Dan Stote (danstote@yahoo.com).

Thank you!

World Day for the Poor - November 18th, 2018

The World Day of the Poor is celebrated on the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time and was established by Pope Francis. In order to emphasize this important day, the Archdiocese of Moncton's Social Justice Team invites you to consult its website (<http://www.diomoncton.ca/en/>). In the NEWS section, you will find the article entitled THE MANY FACES OF POVERTY IN 2018. In order to combat the prejudices towards the poor, interviews have been conducted with people, across the province, living on social assistance.

As a Church, do we really hear the cry of the poor? Are we willing to answer to Pope Francis' call to "Love, not with words but with deeds?"

Gladys LeBlanc, Social Justice Coordinator

Implementation of the new phrasing of Our Father, in French only: at the annual meeting of the French Sector in September 2018, the Catholic Bishops of Canada decided that, as of the first Sunday of Advent (December 2nd), the new French translation of the Our Father (approved by the Vatican) will officially replace the old version. More specifically, the wording "Ne nous laisse pas entrer en tentation", will replace the current text "Ne nous soumet pas à la tentation" which has been in use across Canada since 1966. Archbishop Valéry Vienneau
