Our heartfelt sympathies are extended to Steven Gallant on the passing of his mother, Catherine Gallant and to Nancy Caissie on the passing of her aunt, Helen Woods.

We also pray for those who are sick and for their caregivers. Let us join together in prayer for Charlie O'Hara, for Kimberly Ann Gauvin, daughter-in-law of Lillianne Gauvin, for Eunice Cail, for Jack Connor, brother of Bill Connor and for Clara Bishop, mother of Beryl Hayman. Stewardship

We all want to hear Jesus say to us the same words the master said to those who used their talents wisely:

"Well done, my good and faithful servant... Come, share your master's joy." (Matt 25:21)

But, of all the gifts that God gives us, the one he wants the most is our heart. He wants us to share out of love, not out of obligation. When we align our thoughts and actions with God's plan and use our gifts in the way God intended, our lives become transformed with joy!

The Town of Riverview will hold a ceremony at 10:50 a.m. on Sunday, November 11th at Immaculate Heart of Mary to commemorate Remembrance Day. The Knights of Columbus Council 9270 invites you to join them at the Dan Bohan Centre after the Remembrance Day Service for a luncheon of hot dogs, soup and crackers. Free will donation gratefully accepted.

Please note, on November 11th, the regular Sunday 11:00 a.m. Mass will be held at Holy Family Church.

ALL SAINTS - ALL SOULS

Throughout the month of November, a table will be set up in each Church to display the pictures of those buried from our churches this past year and candles will be lit for each at every Mass in November.

Exploring our Faith

Hear O Israel

"Hear, O Israel! The LORD is our God, the LORD alone!" These words, known as the Shema are the centerpiece of Jewish morning and evening prayer and the focus of all biblical teaching. Because there is only one God we are told: "Therefore, you shall love the LORD, your God, with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength." From this foundation everything else follows.

Rabbi Hillel, one of the most well known rabbis in Jewish history, was teaching in Israel at the time of Jesus' birth. One day a Gentile approached one of Hillel's contemporaries and said, "I will convert to Judaism if you can teach me everything that I need to know while standing on one foot." The rabbi berated the man for his lack of commitment to faith and learning and sent him on his way. A little while later, this same Gentile approached Rabbi Hillel with the same challenge. Rabbi Hillel stood on one foot and said, "Love God and love your neighbour as you love yourself. All the rest is commentary." The man became a disciple of Rabbi Hillel and eventually converted to Judaism.

The scribe in today's gospel is testing Jesus with a variation of the question put to Rabbi Hillel. He wants to know whether Jesus will teach in a way that makes faith accessible to everyone or whether he will embellish and complicate the teachings so that only a select few are able to approach God. Jesus makes it clear that what is expected of us is something that can be done by everyone regardless of wealth or education or location. It may not be easy, but it is not complicated. In the words of an old song: "All you need is love:" love for God, love for others and love for yourself.

This is a message that is desperately needed in today's world where day after day the news is filled with stories of people who are suffering because of hate, prejudice, greed or apathy - each of which is a failure to love our neighbour as we love ourselves. It is worth noting here that the instruction to love our neighbours as we love ourselves is not so much an instruction to love our neighbours as much as we love ourselves, as it is an instruction to love our neighbours at the same time as we are loving ourselves. Each time we make a decision we should be asking ourselves: in making this choice, am I demonstrating love for God, love for my neighbour and love for myself? If the answer to any of these is "no," then we are called to make a different decision.

Too often we make choices that will protect our way of life without thinking about the impact that they will have on others. We act with love for ourselves and our family but we are not showing love for our neighbours and their families at the same time. Many Jews have a small case called a mezuzah containing the words of the Shema attached to the doorframes of their homes to remind them of the commandment to love God and love their neighbour. Perhaps in response to today's Gospel each of us could place Jesus' summary of the two great commandments somewhere in our own homes where we will read it each day and use it to shape all of our decisions.

OUTCASTS

OUTCASTS the Movie!

On Sunday, November 18th at 3:30 p.m. Immaculate Heart of Mary Church will host the screening of the faith-based film, Outcasts. Seven years in the making, this award-winning movie documents the hard struggle of the poor, living in five different countries across the globe. It is a powerful, disturbing, beautiful and inspiring account of the work of the ministry of the Franciscan Friars, whose apostolic mission it is to serve the poor. This is a film about Social Justice; a movie that unlocks the door of human suffering and offers hope for the greatest needs of mankind. The tickets are $15 each or 4 for $50. It is for mature audiences only. To view the trailer, go to www.outcaststhemovie.com.

You can inquire about getting your tickets from Roberto (962-1665), Joseph (233-1767) or from Anne (386-6178) at the parish office. Please let us know sooner rather than later as there is a lot of planning involved. Hope we get a good crowd! J.P. Hill

Development and Peace Caritas Canada asks us to "share the journey "with the millions of refugees and even more internally displaced people around the world. Can we make a difference right here in Riverview?

Yes, we can make a difference in many ways. Firstly, informing ourselves allows us to decide where we can make the greatest difference. Action Cards addressed to the Prime Minister of Canada will be available at the contacts below for one more week. Please support Canada doing more to address the root causes of forced migration. Secondly, we can personally support the program of long term aid, working through valued organization on the ground in the global south by support for Development and Peace. Thirdly, to those accepted as newcomers to Canada, we can provide assistance to establish a new life right here in Riverview. The numbers are small but the rewards are many. We have all experienced this in our own parish in the past. By supporting Development and Peace, or assisting resettlement of newcomers in Canada, we express our care for all. Dan Stote 204-3651/ danstote@yahoo.com / the Parish office: 386-6178

Church Bulletins!

We've had our new bulletin format for almost one year now and we do hope that parishioners like the new look. Advertisers on the bulletin sign on for one year at a time and so right now, there is a small window of time (deadline is Nov 20th) where new advertisers will be able to sign on. So very important, if you own a business or know of a credible company that may benefit from this advertising, please call Shani Court at 506-875-1962 or you can email her at church.bulletin.advertising@gmail.com. The advertising on the back of the bulletin really is an effective local way to advertise in a highly credible venue. We print 500+ bulletins every single week and so our bulletins go out to that many households 52 weeks a year and provide a good advertising location. Also, as we have all year long, we encourage our parishioners to support these advertisers, as they are supporting our parish grouping!

Camino de Santiago

For anyone who may have missed Al Daly's Camino presentation last June, he will do another on Sunday, December 2nd at 7:00 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, if there is enough interest. Using words and pictures, Al will describe his amazing pilgrimage walk – the Camino de Santiago, that is, the Way of Saint James. If you've not heard of this pilgrimage before, it takes place in northwestern Spain and has been a Catholic pilgrimage route since the 9th century!! Al's walk ended in the Cathedral of Santiago de Compostela where tradition has it, that the remains of Saint James are buried. Please call Al at 386-2563 to let him know if you are interested.

Holy Ghost Church

Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and loved ones of Janet Rossiter who passed away suddenly last week. Janet was the wife of the late, Walter Rossiter. There was only one year and ten days between their deaths and we pray for all who loved them.

Congratulations to Michael McSheffery winner of this month's 50/50 draw!

St. Jude's Church

For this final week, St Jude's will be collecting gently used coats, hats, mitts, boots & scarves. Look for the big collection box in the foyer. Let's keep everyone warm this winter season!

As well, if you have new, gently used or ready-to-go towels and blankets, the Undercover Ministry will be collecting the newer ones for the community as well as the older ones for the SPCA. If you have other pet items you would like to donate, they would be very much appreciated! Items can be placed in the HOPE Chest in the foyer.
