Exploring our Faith

THE FIRST STONE

"This is the curiosity about sin – it is far more easily recognized in another than in ourselves. Matthew's Gospel asks: "Why do you see the speck in your neighbour's eye, but do not notice the log in your own?" (Mt 7:3) Ironic isn't it, that uncanny ability humans have? Luke says it differently as we hear today: "Let anyone among you who is without sin be the first to throw a stone at her."

Many years ago, Wayne and I were preparing our son Marc for the sacrament of reconciliation. As we explained to him what the sacrament meant, and what was involved in the celebration of it, Marc had great difficulty in understanding what he might do that was wrong. Interestingly, however, he had no difficulty in recognizing what his younger brother did that was wrong. My experience leads me to the conclusion that such is true for many of us.

Does it help appease our conscience that we can see the sins of another so easily? My mother had a great saying: 'Misery loves company.' Sinners do also, I expect. Most often that which we complain about loudest in another is the very struggle we ourselves have. I'm not suggesting that those who paraded the adulterous woman in front of Jesus and the community were themselves adulterers. Nevertheless, clearly, they were sinners. We all are. It is the human condition. For Jesus it seems we need not concern ourselves with the sins of another. Our task is to pay attention to what we ourselves do that harms another, harms ourselves, harms our relationship with God. Jesus' challenge is one for us all. After her accusers had left Jesus and the woman alone, he finally addresses a question to her: 'Has anyone condemned you? Well, I don't either.' "Go your way, and from now on do not sin again." Unlikely that she was able to follow that directive - even with the very best of intentions few are.

In the first reading, the prophet Isaiah tells us, "Do not remember the former things, or consider the things of old. I am about to do a new thing." Isn't that what reconciliation offers us – the chance to do a new thing? We are not who we were yesterday; we are not who we will be tomorrow. We are who we are now – only now - and the promise of newness is one that is open to all.

Wayne and I have no idea what Marc talked about in that first confession; we have no real knowledge if he fully comprehended what was happening during the celebration of that sacrament. But after receiving absolution, he ran down the aisle to us, and shouted, "I've been forgiven." We have no idea what happened to the woman ... John doesn't tell us, and we don't hear about her again. But I would like to think she too ran to those who loved her, shouting the same message Marc did.

Holy Moments!

ATTENTION EVERYONE: For a Lenten project this year the Catechism families will be writing down their Holy Moments and we will be hanging them on a wall in the Church! We would like to invite EVERYONE in the parish to join us.

A Holy Moment is a moment when you are being the person God created you to be, and you are doing what you believe God is calling you to do in that moment. From the wall:

- I gave my dog some water to help my mom
- I drove a co-worker home
- I invited a family for supper
- I tell my family that I love them, every day
- I picked up my friend's water bottle when it fell

Holy Moments!
Oh, the possibilities!

The possibilities are endless!
Holy Moments are when you are trying to be a better version of yourself and we have little papers for you to write your Holy Moments on!

We are accepting donations for environment in our churches during the Easter season, in memory of deceased loved ones and dear friends. A list will be printed in the bulletin of those being remembered. You can call the Parish Office (386-6178) and then put your donation in a clearly marked envelope (Easter Flowers) and drop it in the collection. Thank you!

The ladies of the Prayer Shawl Ministry are the creators/crafters of beautiful prayer shawls and we invite the parishioners of St. Elizabeth of the Trinity to be the ministers of these shawls. There is a basket of shawls at both Holy Family and Immaculate Heart of Mary Churches and if you, or anyone you know, would like to have a prayer shawl, please take one. Each shawl is blessed and packaged in a clear plastic bag, with a white tag on the shawl, indicating its approximate size. We are hoping the sizing will help you pick the exact shawl you need, saving you from having to go through each bag. Occasionally, there will be attached to the baskets, a package of handmade cards beautifully crafted by Angela Ricker, a member of the Prayer Shawl Ministry. If you are planning to gift a shawl, perhaps you will find one of the cards appropriate for the recipient. May those who receive a shawl be uplifted and comforted, as if in the embrace of God.
