Exploring our Faith

WHAT IS ORDINARY AFTER PENTECOST?

There are two version of the giving of the Holy Spirit to the Church. In one, (Acts 2:1-12) a roar of wind is heard outside the room and tongues of fire appear on the heads of the apostles. After, they go outside and preach to people of many nations and languages. In another version, (Jn 20:22-23) the Risen Christ appears to the apostles and breathes on them saying, "Receive the Holy Spirit, whose sins you shall forgive, they are forgiven, whose you retain, they are retained."

Both versions refer back to stories in Genesis: the Tower of Babel, which describes what happened with the Indo-European languages, is reverse by Luke's version; the expulsion of Adam and Eve from Eden for knowing good from evil, is reversed by John's version. Both versions refer to the gift of the Holy Spirit as language: the tongues of fire as language within each one of us with which we think, and the breath with which we live and talk.

A child is born, swaddled, nursed and loved. Then one day, after a year or two, an ordinary miracle occurs, the child utters their first word. After that comes non-stop talking. Except if the child is born hearing-impaired. That child does not swim in the ocean of language and so teaches us all the importance of hearing and listening in ordinary life and communication.

Today, the wind outside has exploded with the languages of the world. Any and all information is available to anyone at the touch of their fingertips. Long ago, when the secret technology of turning sheepskin into parchment was stolen by the Argonauts and brought to Pergamon, it was called "Golden" Fleece. Now, we see communications and Internet billionaires rich beyond the dreams of avarice.

My mother grew up before the inventions of gasoline, electricity and telephone. Her daily life was closer to the ordinary lives of Biblical times than to that of her own grandchildren. Today, we can be in Moncton and tomorrow in Australia, if we wish. We can eat breakfast and wear clothing from five different continents. Ordinary people enjoy conveniences undreamed of by the wealthiest of the time of Jesus.

When I was seven, I set out at twilight for Jenny's candy store. I kept walking and walking, not finding Jenny's. I started asking passersby, "Where is Jenny's?" and they all pointed 'that way', which was behind me. I kept going forward though and saying, "No, I want the one that is this way!" Crying, I kept on going until someone phoned my mother and she sent my brother to collect me.

Our word "conversion" is based on the Latin for 'turn around and go the other way'. Today, we need to know how to listen but we also need to know good from evil, in all the Internet noise all around us. Will global warming be irreversible because of our gasoline-fired technologies?

October 2019 will be Extraordinary Missionary Month!

The theme of the month is BAPTIZED AND SENT - the church of Christ on mission in the world! The Holy Father suggested the initiative with a double objective. On the one hand, the Pontiff wants "to foster an increased awareness of the mission ad gentes - mission to the nations. He also wants us

"to take up again, with renewed fervor, the missionary transformation of the Church's life and pastoral activity". You will be seeing more information in the October bulletins in preparation for World Mission Sunday.

COATS FOR KIDS

Coats for Kids is a joint project between the Knights of Columbus Council 9270 and our Social Action Committee, where we work together to buy new winter coats in bulk and then donate them to Moncton Headstart! These new coats are distributed to needy children throughout the greater Moncton area. The need is about 900 coats, with about 600 coats donated last year.

This year, we'd like to help make up some of that shortage and we know that together, we can do it!

Through the generosity of our parishioners, last year we were able to donate 96 coats and, given that each new coat costs $28.15, that is a sizable donation! Even so, we want to do more! These little children need our help, they need to be warm and so, these are the ways that you can be part of the 'Coats for Kids' effort!

- Place your donation in the collection basket in an envelope marked 'COATS'. To make sure you get your income tax receipt, be sure to include your name and/or envelope number.
- On Sunday, place your donation in the box in the IHMC lobby.
- Drop by the parish office.
- Attend the Pancake Breakfast fundraiser on October 19th!
