Exploring Our Faith

WHATSOEVER THINGS ARE TRUE

When preparing young people to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation we often speak to them of gifts. We speak of the Gifts of the Holy Spirit (wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and wonder & awe) as well as the Fruit of the Holy Spirit (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.) The idea being that when we graciously receive the gifts God bestows upon each of us and work at strengthening them, we are rewarded with the fruit of our effort.

One way in which we speak to this relationship between gifts and their fruit is through the telling of what is often attributed to as a Native American parable, called "The Two Wolves," and it goes something like this:

An old Cherokee is teaching his grandson about life. "A fight is going on inside all of us," he said to the boy. "It is a terrible fight, and it is between two wolves. One is evil. He is anger, envy, sorrow, regret, arrogance, self-pity, resentment, inferiority, false-pride, superiority, and ego.

He continued, "The other wolf is good – she is joy, peace, love, hope, serenity, humility, kindness, benevolence, empathy, generosity, truth, compassion, and faith. The same fight is going on inside you – and inside every other person, too."

The grandson thought about it for a minute and then asked his grandfather, "Which wolf will win?"

The old Cherokee simply replied, "The one you feed."

"The Two Wolves" may not be a perfect comparison, but the central message stands: receive the gifts given to us by God, grow and nurture them and everyone will benefit from the fruit of our effort. Not just me, but those around me as well.

In a perfect world I would say, "and we all lived happily ever after," but...reality...and I am telling you the last thing you want to chirp at someone experiencing a depressive episode or someone who has lost their job because of COVID-19 is, "Cheer up, buttercup! Feed the Good Wolf!"

Another way I can look at this is to ask myself if my behaviour is motivated by fear or by love?" Am I feeding my fear so it multiplies and colours how I see the world around me or am I feeding the love within me so that multiplies and colours my worldview? Do I express my faith through fear or through the lens of Christ's love?

Reflect for a moment on how differently the two might look.

The truthful answer for me personally is that I strive to focus on that which is good and true and honourable but sometimes succumb to that which is not, and I suspect this may be a realistic depiction of how life unfolds for many of us.

Yet the Parable of the Talents told by Jesus in today's gospel reminds us that we will never run short of that which we offer to God. More love, more compassion, more kindness, more understanding are the things which will not only multiply by my giving of them, but at the same time will draw me closer to God. Despite my knowledge of "the instructions," I suspect the struggle between the two wolves is one that will continue to play out for the remainder of my human experience.

Food Banks

Providing food to those in need can be difficult at the best of times. With COVID-19, that task got a whole lot harder as many more are being served and much is needed. Thank you all so very much!

Holy Family Church - The need is great for personal hygiene items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, razors, toilet paper and deodorant. And as always, we need rice, pasta, cereal and paper towels.

Holy Ghost and Immaculate Heart of Mary Churches - We gladly accept whatever is offered but right now, there is a need for ladies' deodorant, shampoo, drinking boxes, pudding/fruit cups, baby food and diapers (larger than 14 lbs.). Also, please consider providing candy for the Christmas Aid boxes. Thank you!

Reserve Your Spot

Please remember that you must call the parish office at 386-6178 each week to reserve the next available spot for Mass.

NOTE: The safety of our parishioners is of utmost importance and we will continue to follow all Province of NB regulations. That being said, unless you have a medical reason, masks are mandatory throughout all of Mass. (i.e. from when you come into the church, during Mass, while walking up and back to your pew for communion and then again, while exiting the church) Thank you for your understanding and cooperation!

The Book of the Names of the Dead

The Book of the Names of the Dead is now online and names sent into the office will 'scroll' on the screen, allowing us all to hold up these dearly departed in prayer. Please, call the office (386-6178) or use email to get the names to us and we will enter those names into the online book throughout all of November. Go to www.setmoncton.com and click on the button you will see there, 'The Book of the Names of the Dead'.

Fourth World Day of the Poor, Sunday November 15th, 2020

Established by Pope Francis, the World Day of the Poor has been celebrated on the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time since 2017. "Stretch forth your hand to the poor" (Sir 7:32). In this journey of daily encounter with the poor, the Mother of God is ever at our side. More than any other, she is the Mother of the Poor. The Virgin Mary knows well the difficulties and sufferings of the marginalized, for she herself gave birth to the Son of God in a stable. Due to the threat of Herod, she fled to another country with Joseph her spouse and the child Jesus. For several years, the Holy Family lived as refugees. May our prayer to Mary, Mother of the Poor, unite these, her beloved children, with all those who serve them in Christ's name. And may that prayer enable outstretched hands to become an embrace of shared and rediscovered fraternity. Pope Francis

St. Jude's and Immaculate Heart of Mary Churches

A profound bond links sacred
Scripture and the faith of believers.
- Pope Francis

On Sunday, November 22nd (next Sunday) we will not be celebrating Eucharist but will have Sunday Celebration of the Word, as Fr. Phil will be out of town. Even as we accept that Sunday liturgies celebrated when the Eucharist cannot take place are never the ideal, we must recognize also their positive effects. We acknowledge that they maintain and build up the community as the Body of Christ and that they encourage the development of the co-responsibility of the laity within the Church. We ask that you call to register as you would for any other Sunday liturgy, as your presence is an integral part of our prayer. Please note that communion will not be distributed.

Holy Ghost Church

50/50 Draw – will be drawn in the coming weeks and will include a draw for these three items donated by Jean. Thank you, Jean, we appreciate your thoughtfulness. ❤️

As you are aware with COVID, we need to ensure seating is appropriate and registered. You can reach the office at 386-6178 or contact Teresa at 874-6123. We will do our best to accommodate as many as we can, on these special feast days.

St. Jude's Church

Salisbury Helping Hands Christmas Program 2020!

In light of COVID, this year we would appreciate donations instead of gift tags! We have volunteer shoppers and they will put on masks and go forth to purchase toys, PJ's, snowsuits and boots. A receipt will be given, if requested, with an address attached and any donation can be delivered to our Food Bank on Tuesday and Wednesday from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. If there is someone, or maybe a group, who would prefer to sponsor a family that too, could be arranged by calling Bonnie at 372-5681 and we can assign a family, as requested. Also, we would still like to share Christmas with our Single Mom and Dad Gift Bags, as they enjoy it so. If a group would like to fill a few of these, again, please call Lois at 372-4357 and we will add your group to our list and explain how this could work for this year.

Lastly, there is a website if you would prefer to donate online and you can select the foodbank of your choice. <https://www.canadahelps.org/en/dn/47373>

Salisbury Helping Hands Christmas program committee says thank you St. Jude's for any and all help in the coming weeks, as we proceed with Christmas during COVID19 restrictions.

Transformed Through Eucharist

Your final opportunity to register for the upcoming workshop: Transformed Through Eucharist is Tuesday, November 17th. Taking place on Thursday, November 19th at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, beginning at 6:30 p.m., you are asked to arrive by 6:00 p.m. to ensure that we are safely able to receive everyone. While parents of all children in the English sector preparing to receive the sacrament of Eucharist for the first time are expected to attend this session, anyone is most welcome to join us. Karen LeBlanc and Ellen Bennett will speak about the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and what we as Roman Catholic Christians believe takes place during its celebration. Please contact Ellen or Karen to register and confirm your attendance.

The End is Nigh: Exploring the Book of Revelations

Can there be a better time to delve into the Book of Revelations than 2020?????

Join Dr. Andrew Wilson and Dr. Fiona Black on Tuesday, November 24th from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. in this virtual session, as they look at Revelations as an example of "apocalyptic literature" an ancient mode of storytelling with a rich and evocative history, consider its place within our Christian tradition and explore what it might add to an appreciation of the topsy-turvy times within which we live. This final book of the New Testament often poses a challenge to interpreters with its colourful and fantastical imagery of the end of days. At the same time, given the bewildering events of the past year alone, it seems more relevant to our current world situation than ever.

Registration deadline is November 23rd. Please contact Ellen to register – you will need an email address to receive the link that will join you to the presentation.
