Exploring Our Faith

THE POWER OF WORDS – NOUNS AND VERBS

"Sticks and stones may break my bones but names will never hurt me!" These brave words, shouted at other children hurling insults, are simply not true. Words have power to hurt, as cyber bullying shows; and yet also have power to heal, as shouting back at bullies mitigates the pain. In the new catechism, St. Augustine is quoted as saying that the sacraments receive their power by combining words with material elements (1228). At the time of my First Holy Communion 72 years ago the words were Latin. We the people in the congregation watched the back of the priest as he said Latin words facing the wall. Those who could read followed along with the English translation in their Missals.

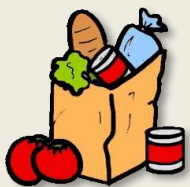

But are the words of consecration nouns or verbs? "Take and eat this" are verbs. "Hoc est enim corpus meum" emphasize the noun "corpus". We know that Jesus honoured the Jewish Feast of the Passover with a ritual Sabbath meal. We know of His deep knowledge of Scripture. He chose the sign of His new covenant at that ritual feast and gave all of us His followers a way to be with Him - to participate in His presence- by eating and drinking. What else do we do at a feast?

"Do this in memory of Me." Is it the verb or the noun that powers Christian life? Jesus knew that Adam and Eve "ate" the fruit of knowledge. He offered us a way to engage with Him and to celebrate in joyful ceremony our participation in the way of life He offers. "Wherever two or three of you are gathered together in My name, there am I in the midst of you." Holy Communion is not a solo flight. It is a "Communion of Saints" created by the Holy Spirit out of us sinners who have been comforted by the powerful words of Christ. The Communion hymn paraphrases the Roman Occupation soldier who interceded for his servant by saying "...but speak the words of comfort my spirit healed shall be."

Food Banks

Holy Family Church - The need is always great for items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, razors, toilet paper and deodorant. Also, rice, pasta, cereal and paper towels.

Holy Ghost and Immaculate Heart of Mary Churches - We gladly accept whatever is offered but right now, there is a need for ladies' deodorant, cakes of soap, toothbrushes and shampoo. Thank you!

Thank you to parishioners throughout our parish grouping who continue to help those who are hungry.

Truly I tell you, just as you did it to one of the least of these, who are members of my family, you did it to me. Matthew 25:40

Did You Know?

Our hope for heaven is found in Christ Jesus. Jesus asks us to remain in his love. He tells us to stay united in his life, in the same way a branch must remain united to the vine in order to grow, live and bear fruit. By remaining united to him, the sap of his divine life runs within us so that we may flourish in good works for the glory of the Father. "As the source and summit of the Christian life" the Eucharist unites us in love of the Father and nourishes and strengthens us to remain united to him and to do good works for his glory.

Celebrating the Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis has declared this the year of Saint Joseph. One of the many things Saint Joseph is known for is providing for the Holy Family. With this in mind, the Adult Faith Commission is seeking to partner with organizations who are working to feed those less fortunate in our community. We recently met with Alicia Clarkson from the Peter McKee Community Garden and she gave a wonderful presentation on the work they are currently doing and their plans for the future.

When asked what their most pressing needs are she responded with “seeds and funding”. Some of the seeds they would be looking for are Carrots (Tenderly Emperor, Scarlet Nantes), Lettuce (Buttercrunch, Little Gem, Romaine) and Tomato (Prudens Purple, San Morzano). Also, gift cards to hardware stores or garden centers are always useful.

As far as funding, they currently have 101 Garden Boxes on the go; of the 101, only 16 are currently being sponsored. You can sponsor a box for $200 for the year. This will provide seeds, soil and maintenance, updates, a charitable tax receipt, and the goods grown in your name will go to the food bank, or a family in need. Also, for the $200 there will be a sign put up with the information of the sponsor.

If you would like more information about this, please check out their Facebook page or email Alicia at alicia.clarkson@fooddepot.ca

AFC Committee members: Mike Jefferies, Susan McCarthy, Debbie Theriault, Mark Mahoney, Fr. Phil Mulligan.

This past year, the pandemic has caused empty shelves, increased food prices and has exposed weaknesses in our fragile food system. The number of families who are insecure about where their next meal will come from, has also increased and the importance of community gardens and local food sources has never been clearer. Thank you to all who are able to help!
