The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726. The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Exploring Our Faith

THE HEART OF THE MATTER

"For this week's reflection, I am going to digress a little from reflecting on the reading/gospel theme, though there is mention of 'priests', as has been a current theme these past few weeks, and I would like to reflect on what it means to be a PRIEST.

Priests are there for Baptism, First Penance, First Communion, Confirmation; for some, commitment in marriage; when the elderly or infirmed are anointed with the oil of the sick, presiding at funeral rites and consoling the bereaved. In between, a priest offers Holy Mass, catechizes the faithful in faith and morals, advises the young, comforts the suffering, advises the confused, encourages the struggling, visits the ailing, heartens the immigrant, promotes justice and peace, and intercedes for all in prayer. All a priest does, is done in conformity with Jesus Christ, who with a brother's love, calls each to form a heart after His own.

A priest is expected to love others more than he loves himself, for he has been chosen to represent Christ's love in a world that has become skeptical of his worth and all too often heedless of his admonitions. There can be great discouragement and frustration especially, when priests are not as trusted as they used to be. Coping with the early days of the pandemic must have been particularly difficult for priests, who usually live 'alone' in a rectory making life even lonelier than usual. The pandemic has prevented priests from doing all they could for their people but, as true representatives of Christ, they are weathering the storm.

A priest has a BIG HEART:

- a Father's Heart - a spiritual father who listens to his children's problems and advises and helps them overcome the difficult moments of life.
- a Brother's Heart - a priest is a brother to all. Like a brother, everyone is important to him, no matter who they are or what they do, they can be assured that, in the priest, they have a brother they can trust.
- a Friend's Heart - a priest is one of the best friends one could have. We know that we can rely on him no matter what. He will always be there when we need him and will care because he wants the best for all of us.

Ultimately, a priest's heart is full of generosity and kindness. He is willing to give away his time his energy, his possessions, even his heart, for God and His people.

Now to get to the HEART of the matter. I want to reflect on one priest in particular, as he celebrates his 56th birthday on November 14th - our own Father Phil Mulligan. All the previous words describing priests can be applied to Father Phil. Phil was born in Aylmer Quebec, just across the border from Ottawa Ontario. I grew up in Renfrew Ontario, about an hour's drive from Ottawa and very close to the Quebec border. It means a lot to me that he knows where I'm from. He is from a Catholic family of 8 (6 boys and 2 girls). I wonder if they all have that red tinge to their hair, too? His father is still alive, and Phil was finally able to enjoy a 'wonderful visit' this past August after a long time of separation due to Covid restrictions. Phil was ordained on August 23rd, 1997, and has been the best example of a priest, that you could ever want.

Father Phil keeps it all simple and real for the people. He takes the Scriptures and brings them to life with stories from real life experiences. He has built a true faith community - his constant reminder of community, in all we do. He would never ask more of anyone than he asks from himself. Pope Francis has stated that 'a sense of humour is one of the characteristics of holiness' and Fr. Phil certainly has that sense of humour. His helpful and understanding manner highlights his special character and is inspiring for everyone. He has unmeasurable faith and dedication to his churches (4 churches in his parish grouping) and to his parishioners. We are so grateful to have him not only as our parish priest, but as our friend. "So here we all gather and are all proud to know, you are our Father, just so you know."

Fr. Phil may have, maybe just a little, hinted at gifts for his birthday and that's all fine, but maybe this year we could also think of doing something 'in his name'. For example, spend time with family playing a game together, bring a meal to someone living alone, pay it forward at Tim's. Of course, Phil's favourite pie is blueberry and I'm sure homemade bread/rolls could find their way to his table, too! Also, let us keep him in our prayers that he is able to sustain his efforts to show he is God's representative here for us.

In the sport of golf there is a Mulligan. A mulligan is a do-over - usually for tee shots that go awry. Well, Fr. Phil is a 'Mulligan', but he doesn't need a do-over. If God was golfing, he wouldn't need a mulligan in directing our Father Phil... everything is just right!

HAPPY BIRTHDAY FATHER PHIL!!!!

Food Banks

Holy Family Church - The need is always great for items such as toothpaste, toothbrushes, soap, razors, toilet paper and deodorant. Also, rice, pasta, cereal and paper towels.

Holy Ghost and Immaculate Heart of Mary - We gladly accept whatever is offered but right now, there is a need for ladies' deodorant, cakes of soap, toothbrushes, toothpaste, and shampoo. Also, we could really use drinking boxes, puddings (snacks), kraft dinner, baby formula and baby wipes.

St. Jude's - Thank you so much for whatever you can give to the Salisbury Helping Hands Food Bank and right now we could certainly use vegetable soup, cream of chicken soup, green beans, creamed corn, sugar, flour, pancake mix and jam. We would appreciate some ladies' deodorant, as well. Thank you all!

Fifth World Day of the Poor, Sunday November 14th, 2021

The World Day of the Poor has been celebrated on the 33rd Sunday of Ordinary Time since 2017.

In the message, entitled 'The poor you will always have with you' (Mark 14:7),

Pope Francis states: "The poor, always and everywhere, evangelize us, because they enable us to discover in new ways the true face of the Father. "They have much to teach us. Besides participating in the sensus fidei, they know the suffering Christ through their own sufferings. It is necessary that we all let ourselves be evangelized by them. The new evangelization is an invitation to recognize the salvific power of their lives and to place them at the centre of the Church's journey. We are called to discover Christ in them, to lend them our voice in their causes, but also to be their friends, to listen to them, to understand them and to welcome the mysterious wisdom that God wants to communicate to us through them. Our commitment does not consist exclusively of activities or programmes of promotion and assistance; what the Holy Spirit mobilizes is not an unruly activism, but above all an attentiveness that considers the other in a certain sense as one with ourselves. This loving attentiveness is the beginning of a true concern for their person which inspires me effectively to seek their good'

Immaculate Heart of Mary Church

For the month of November, Immaculate Heart of Mary Church has committed to raising awareness (and other things) for the Pregnancy & Wellness Centre of Moncton!

Each week throughout November, we will put information about this wonderful organization in the bulletin! And below, we have identified things that they really, really need for those who come to the centre.

The Pregnancy & Wellness Centre of Moncton has served thousands of women in our community, offering a variety of prenatal and parenting educational programs.

Right now, the Centre is in dire need of baby supplies, namely:

- Diapers (newborn and on up)
- Pull-ups of any size
- Baby formula (specifically, Parent's Choice powdered)

There will be specially marked envelopes for the Pregnancy and Wellness Centre and if you can help with any amount, that would be wonderful!

Transformed Through Eucharist

*What happens during the Eucharist? How important is Eucharist to you?
Why are you preparing your child to make their First Communion?*

Given our current reality, it has been decided that this session will now only be offered virtually, taking place via Zoom on Thursday, November 25th beginning at 6:30 p.m.

While the session is open to anyone interested in exploring more about the sacrament of Eucharist, parents of children preparing to receive First Eucharist in the spring of 2022 at any parish within the English sector, are asked to participate in this session, which will deepen your understanding of what the Church believes and teaches about the sacrament of Eucharist. Facilitators Karen LeBlanc and Ellen Bennett will offer an overview of the Liturgy of the Eucharist, and talk about how, through the Eucharist, the bread and wine and the assembly are transformed again into the Body of Christ. Registration will need to be done by contacting Ellen or your parish catechetical coordinator so that the Zoom link can be sent to you.
