The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

"Love the Lord your God with all your mind."

looking and not knowing what would intrigue me, I caught sight of this book.

No one had ever been entirely successful explaining the first Beatitude to me. Mr. Forest goes through all the usual explanations then provided me with what excited my soul. Now I understood. I won't share my moment of epiphany; truth is never so mundane to be shared in this way. But this is an outstanding, delightful book, full of saints and stories we know and also some we may not know, but from the Orthodox Tradition. I will leave you with this hint though,blessed does not mean happy. Colleen

When we first arrived at the church, mid-Covid pandemic, someone kindly let me into the closed library, which was then used as a storeroom. As I squeezed around the boxes and chairs,

Exploring Our Faith

WORRY OR HOPE

The rhythm of the Church is one which is all her own. We are invited to enter into that rhythm, but often find it hard to do so, influenced as we are by the secular world in which we live. This Sunday, the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, is the second last of this liturgical year. Soon, very soon, we will begin preparations to welcome the Babe. Some may have already begun them. 😊

The readings give a feeling of foreboding, 'nation will rise against nation ... there will be great earthquakes ... famines and plagues... you will be betrayed even by your parents.' These words correlate with the continued feeling of angst in the world, present for several years, exasperated now as we seem rapidly headed for a recession, while also struggling with fall-out from the pandemic and a persistent movement of many to far right or far left ideologies. Investments are dropping and costs increasing: home heating fuel, gas for our cars, groceries. Interest rates are the highest they have been since 2008. Those with variable mortgage rates are paying more; others are still struggling to find a home they can afford; rents are up. The Bennett's are feeling concern around this as well - filling our oil tank will cost approximately $1200, about 50% more than we budgeted; a new car ordered last spring will now cost about $2000 more. Worries of it all can weigh us down. Added to that we seem surrounded by sickness and death - two young nephews who are encountering health issues; friends who have experienced sudden deaths of good friends; another who has received devastating news about a cancer diagnosis. Life seems hard right now.

Yet the readings also say, 'when you hear of wars and insurrections, do not be terrified. ... not a hair of your head will perish.' Words of comfort; words of hope; words that call us to trust.

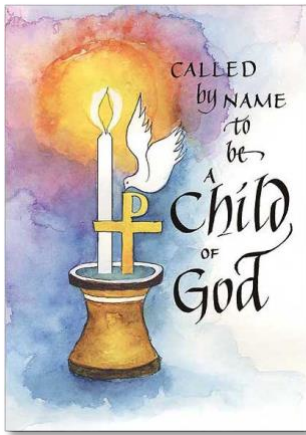

For some reason or another, I am always tired at this time of year. It is easier for me to live the worries than the joys; focus on what needs to be done, rather than what has already been accomplished. I am a worker bee, and even though now retired, am challenged to complete the many tasks I keep creating for myself. Maybe it is when one is tired that we are more prone to anxiety, to seeing the half empty glass versus the half full one.

So last week I was thrilled to witness powerful examples of community which brought peace and joy. The Mass for All Souls Day - that beautiful, poignant liturgy which remembers those from our pastoral unit who have died in the last 12 months, touched me. Hearing a bit of their story - "I miss the birthday cards that arrived two weeks ahead of schedule with a large 'do not open until...' noted on the front of the envelope. ... I miss that you could not join me to watch the Habs beat the Leafs in the season's opening game. ... Most of all, I miss you." - brought back my own memories of those I love who have died. The Snowflake Bazaar hosted by the IHM Ladies Society presented opportunity to see grandparents shopping with their grandchildren; watch young people find treasures from other people's castaways; chat with those I have not seen in a long time and some I only met that day; spot parishioners and former parishioners mingling together. Last Sunday's liturgy welcomed two young cousins, both honouring their grandmother by bearing her name, into the Church through the celebration of Baptism, surrounded not only by their family, but also by the community.

These simple, ordinary events offered me such positive experiences of community. It is not to say that all we worry about is not happening; that tragedy and struggles are not real and painful. However, when we allow it to, the community can offer comfort and hope, joy and support through times of angst and fatigue. Maybe because it is the Body of Christ which He left us.

Sacrament of Baptism

Through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, we welcome

Georgia Anne Marie, daughter of Murray and Heather
Brynlee Anne, daughter of Derek and Kailey

Sweet Georgia and Brynlee, may the grace and blessings received at Baptism guide you both throughout your lives and may this holy occasion bring your families great joy.

God bless you little ones, beloved children of God!

During the month of November, a Book of the Names of the Dead is placed in each of our churches for all parishioners to write in the names of deceased family and friends, who will be prayed for at each Mass during the month.

Also, throughout the month of November, a table will be set up in each Church to display the pictures of our dearly departed and candles will be lit for all at each Mass in November.

Red Wednesday - On Wednesday, November 16th, 2022, The Canadian Office of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) invites everyone to show solidarity with persecuted Christians around the world by participating in Red Wednesday. In Montreal, a Mass will be celebrated at 7:30 p.m. at Mary Queen of the World Cathedral, whereas in Toronto, an ecumenical vigil will begin at 7:00 p.m. at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica. Salt + Light TV will be airing both events.

Further details are available at: <https://acn-canada.org/red-wednesday/>

Let us pray in a special way for our brothers and sisters persecuted around the world because of their faith so that all countries can achieve respect and tolerance between people of different religious traditions.

The 6th World Day of the Poor

Set for the 33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time, World Day of the Poor is a day explicitly desired by Pope Francis and promulgated by the Catholic Church as of 2017. This day is intended above all for and with poor people. The Holy Father refuses to see the poor as only recipients of a good deed of volunteering to do once a week. He insists rather on the need to dedicate oneself to a true encounter with them and to a sharing that becomes a way of life. He hopes that this world day will become a strong appeal to our conscience as believers. The poor, he says, are a resource that we must draw on to welcome and live the essence of the Gospel. Sharing with the poor allows us to understand the Gospel in its deepest truth.

Mask Mandate - Update

We continue to think about the people who come to our celebrations and are hesitant about relaxing the mask restrictions, so we will continue to encourage wearing masks, but we will no longer require it. That being said, priests and people serving in the sanctuary, will continue to set an example by wearing masks when giving communion. While we will not impose health requirements not set by the Health Department, we will continue to have bottles of disinfectant and masks at the entrances of all our churches.

Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) - Save the date!

One theme arising from previous sessions on MAiD, was that many of us are uncomfortable discussing our own death, as well as the death of a loved one. However, honest conversations (about values, good palliative care, or advanced care planning) can help to improve the care we receive at the end of our lives. In response to this, the Committee Looking at Medical Assistance in Dying (MAiD) is planning a session.

Monday, November 21st at Holy Family Church from 7:00 p.m. – 8:30 p.m.

The session will be led by Pam Driedger, member of the Adult Faith Commission and a Director of Spiritual Care at the Moncton Hospital with Horizon Health Network. The aim of this session will be to help families start conversations about death and dying before circumstances force them to. How can families and loved ones accompany those who find themselves struggling with illness, pain and difficult medical circumstances? Register with Karen LeBlanc at 387-4198, karen.diocese@gmail.com or online at www.diomoncton.ca → Pastoral Offices → Adult Faith → Formation Opportunities.

Formation for Baptism Preparation Teams - Formation for those involved in preparing parents for the baptism of their children will take place on Saturday, November 26th from 9:00 a.m. – 12:00 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church.

Transformed Through the Eucharist - All parents of children preparing to receive First Eucharist in the spring of 2023 at any parish within the English sector, are asked to attend a session taking place on Thursday, December 1st at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church. Registration for children receiving the sacrament will take place from 6:00 p.m. until 6:30 p.m., with the remaining time devoted to a discussion of the Eucharist. Please contact Karen at 387-4198 or karen.diocese@gmail.com. Please note this session will also be open to anyone interested in learning more about the Eucharist, but registration is still necessary.
