The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Parish Appreciation Road Show 2023! Coming soon to a parish near you!

As you know, in the past, before COVID, the staff would take the time each year to host a Parish Appreciation for the grouping, giving thanks and appreciation to all the volunteers who offer their gifts to the life and work of our churches. This year, we would like to offer a time of fellowship and refreshments after Mass in each of our churches after the weekend Mass. We are so grateful for all you do in the parish! Watch the bulletin for your parish's date and mark it on your calendar – all are welcome!

With gratitude, from the staff

Exploring Our Faith

WITH EYES TO SEE

The task of religion is not to turn us into 'proper' believers; it is to deepen the personal within us, to embrace the power of life, to expand our consciousness, in order that we might see things that eyes do not normally see. ~Bishop John Shelby Spong

In my last reflection, I wrote about an angel made from a glittery ribbon that watches protectively from the living room mirror in my mother's home. For years I looked at it and thought it was nothing more than an elaborate, glittery bow, until one day I noticed that it was in fact shaped like an angel. I showed a friend a picture of the angel and her response was, "How could you possibly not have known that was an angel?" I ask the same question of myself because in hindsight, it seems very obvious to me that I was looking at an angel. The important part here is that the angel had not changed, but something in me had changed. What could have transformed me in this way? I do not know the answer, but I can tell you I began to see differently back in 2017 as we cared for my dying father. One palliative care nurse wore a pin of angel wings, another visitor arrived wearing a snow white fluffy jacket that literally made her look like an angel, another nurse whom I had never met brought our family supper one night. At this sacred time leading up to and including the death of my father, I began to see angels everywhere I looked...and not the kind of angels we see in movies with white robes, glowing faces and choral music. What I saw made me feel as though the scales had fallen from my eyes and I could see that there has always been angel stuff going on all around me. In a way it reminded me of those Magic Eye pictures from the 1990s that presented an optical illusion. At first the image would appear to be nothing more than a colourful design or pattern but upon closer inspection you noticed it contained a hidden shape(s), which seemed to appear out of the blue right before your eyes.

The Emmaus story we hear today from Luke's Gospel is another reminder to me that just because a thing is invisible to us does not mean it is not there. My most consistent prayer as an adult has been for greater clarity and focus in order that I may see truth more clearly. In my mind at least, if I am able to conquer some of the personal and cultural biases that cloud my vision, I am one step closer to the transformation Jesus wants for each of us. Similar to the disciples walking to Emmaus, I am in my own way one step closer to recognizing Jesus in the breaking of the bread.

In his work, With Burning Heart (1994), Fr. Henri Nouwen muses about what transformation could have occurred in the disciples to go from not recognizing Jesus to recognizing Jesus:

"It is so easy to narrow Jesus down to our Jesus, to our experience of His love, to our way of knowing Him. But Jesus left us so as to send His Spirit, and His Spirit blows where it wants...There are many ways in which Jesus appears and many ways in which He lets us know that He is alive."

From this I have learned a couple of lessons I consider important. First, at all times God is at work both within me and within others whether or not I am able to recognize this. Second, there is evidence of the divine embracing me at all times, if I have the eyes to see.

Annual collection for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund

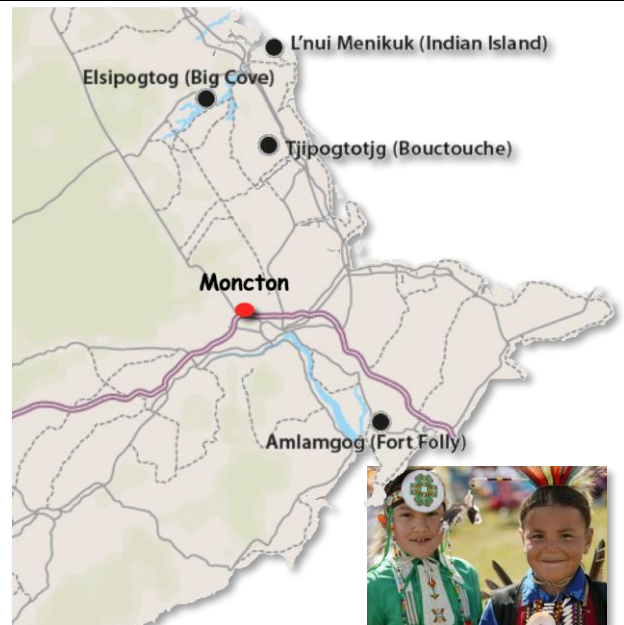

First, I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your great generosity during last year's collection, which allowed our Archdiocese of Moncton to raise $34,820. A big thank you to all the faithful who contributed and the people who organized fundraising activities.

The Catholic Bishops of Canada have committed to raising $30 million within five years. Last year, the collection across Canada raised $9,594,986. The funds are managed by a national board of directors composed of leaders, half of whom are Indigenous. This Board is responsible for implementing measures to ensure the proper functioning and transparency of the administration of the collected funds.

I am pleased to inform you that the funds collected in our parishes last year will be used for local projects in collaboration with our four local Mi'gmaq communities: Elsipogtog First Nation, Bouctouche MicMac, Fort Folly First Nation, and Indian Island First Nation.

Special envelopes will be distributed to parishes for this year's collection, which will take place on May 6th and 7th, 2023. I invite you to continue to support this fund. Thank you.

Archbishop Valéry Vienneau

Did You Know?

Let us 'walk with' those two disciples on the road to Emmaus and sit with them at table in the company of the 'stranger'. This is what happens to us, and for us, at Eucharist. We are in the presence of the Risen Lord every time we come to the table of the Lord. May our hearts burn within us!

(Pg 175 SB 2023)

Concert - Chœur des Aboiteaux (under the direction of Paula Hebert) on May 7th at 2:30 p.m. at St. John's United Church (Victoria St./Alma St., Moncton). Admission $12 from the choir members, $15 at the door the day of the concert and free for children 12 years and under.

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament

Time spent with Jesus. Can anything else be so productive? The gift of the Eucharist nourishes us in the most extraordinary of ways. Saint John Paul II beautifully expresses how the Body of Christ has been the foundation of his faith.

"The Eucharist is the secret of my day. It gives strength and meaning to all my activities of service to the Church and to the whole world ... Let Jesus present in the Blessed Sacrament speak to your hearts. It is he who is the true answer of life that you seek. He stays here with us: He is God with us. Seek him without tiring; welcome him without reserve; love him without interruption: today, tomorrow, forever!" — Address to young people of Bologna, Italy, Sept. 27, 1997

We are looking for people with a genuine commitment to bringing Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament back to the community in a more consistent and dedicated manner. We are looking for people who are willing to commit to offering some time to keep the Adoration Chapel at St. Therese in Dieppe. We are also committed at St. Augustine's to offering Adoration on Wednesday evenings beginning in May and continuing our Thursday evening Adoration between 7-8 at St. Lawrence O'Toole. Should you or your parish be willing to join us, please contact us at St. Augustine's at 506-857-4223.
