The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Regular Mass Times

Saturdays

Exploring Our Faith

A SHEPHERD IS IT?

I know very little about shepherds. In fact I would argue, that very few of us do. Frankly, I was shocked to discover that shepherds are still a real thing. That, although modern methods of farming have made protecting and herding sheep a lot easier, there are still many places in the world, including places in North America, where shepherds continue doing the job which has been done for thousands of years – one source indicated it may well be the oldest occupation of all. I also learned that while sheep may look docile, peaceful and easy to manipulate, they can be very difficult to herd and guard.

This fourth Sunday of Easter is sometimes called Good Shepherd Sunday, primarily because in each year of the lectionary cycle, the readings for it ask us to think about Jesus as a Good Shepherd. It is an image I am challenged by, one I had considered out-dated, more reflective of the culture during the time of Jesus. In point of view, given the nature of sheep ... and of people ... it is spot on. Who knew???

Shepherds look out for their sheep. They work long hours for little pay, spend many days alone in cold, wet weather, ensuring that the herds under their charge are protected from predators, led to new pastures when their food supply is exhausted, seek out errant sheep who have wandered from the fold. What a powerful image for our God – a God who is always desiring what is best for us; a God who never tires of trying to guide, feed and protect us; a God who comforts and strengthens us when we are challenged by life's circumstances.

On this particular Good Shepherd Sunday, we hear the beloved Psalm 23. It is one that is very familiar even to those who are not regular participants in the Sunday liturgy, sung as it often is at funerals. Indeed, I have heard it so often that I no longer listen to the words – it has become a rote prayer akin to the Lord's Prayer almost, another prayer that I have to work on praying versus racing through. Recently however, I received some disconcerting news, and in my preparations for this reflection, the words of that psalm have resonated with me in a new way. "The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want ... he restores my soul ... even walking through the darkest valley, I fear no evil ... my cup overflows ... I shall dwell in the house of the Lord my whole life long." An aha moment for me. No wonder these words bring comfort to so many as they sit in the midst of grief and mourning.

To have our souls restored when we are weighed down by life; to be open to the guidance of one who loves us unconditionally; to know that regardless what we must face our God is accompanying us; to accept that we dwell always in the Lord's house - these are concepts that come to us through faith. My father was diagnosed with terminal cancer at the age of 56, and died 20 months later. In our home, our mother was the one we saw as the faithful Catholic, albeit that Dad joined us every Sunday at church. Yet, from the point of his diagnosis to the date of his death, my father never expressed anger at his sickness or fear at what was to come. He was a reticent man my dad, and I will concede that part of that may have been his natural inclination. But what I witnessed during those 20 months was a man of profound faith, who knew that this journey he was making was not being done by him alone. The Good Shepherd who is preparing a table for us all was with Dad during that time in his life, as He is with us all, always. Like any good shepherd He never strays from the task of protecting and guiding us. Comforting? Yes, for sure.

Ellen Bennett

St. Elizabeth of the Trinity

We would like to extend our congratulations to these young people who received the sacrament of Communion for the very first time last Sunday. We welcome them lovingly to the Table of the Lord and rejoice that they are finally able to join us fully in the Eucharist. They eagerly awaited this day for a very long time. We pray they will frequently seek the spiritual nourishment that participating in this sacrament will provide for them throughout their lives. Congratulations from all of us at Holy Family, St. Jude's, Holy Ghost, and Immaculate Heart of Mary, and may God bless you always.

Annual collection for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund

I am pleased to inform you that the funds collected locally in our parishes last year ($34,820) will be used in funding local projects in collaboration with our four local Mi'gmaq communities: Elsipogtog First Nation, Bouctouche MicMac, Fort Folly First Nation, and Indian Island First Nation. We will work in the coming months to identify projects based on the priorities of these communities. In addition, we hope to encourage initiatives in the following areas:

- 1) healing and reconciliation
- 2) revitalization of culture and language
- 3) education and early childhood development
- 4) promoting Indigenous spirituality and culture

I know that no process can erase the pain of survivors and those who experience intergenerational trauma. However, by staying attentive, cultivating trusting relationships, and working collaboratively on joint projects, we hope to learn to journey together on the path of truth and healing. Special envelopes will be distributed to parishes for this year's collection, which will take place on May 6th and 7th. May the Lord help us in our efforts of reconciliation and rapprochement with our Indigenous sisters and brothers.

Archbishop Valéry Vienneau

From the Parish Office - Gifts to the Reconciliation Fund can be made at any time during the calendar year. Cheques should (always!) be made payable to your church. Indicate the fund on your envelope or the memo line of your cheque. Please give generously – donations to the fund are added to your annual receipt.

Ordination to the diaconate of Mr. Frank Quinn

Invitation to all the faithful:

You are invited to the ordination of Mr. Frank Quinn as a transitional deacon for the priesthood at Saint Bernard's Church, 43 Botsford St. on Saturday, April 29th at 10:00 a.m. Welcome to all.

Archbishop Valéry Vienneau

Did You Know?

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is known as Good Shepherd Sunday. Jesus portrays himself not only as the Shepherd, but as the Gate, the door of the sheepfold, the place where the sheep are housed and protected. It was customary for the shepherd to sleep at the entrance of the sheepfold to provide security for the sheep against predators and thieves. Jesus' self-portrait assures us of His unconditional love for us. What better comfort could we have than His promise that He has come among us, that we "might have life and have it more abundantly" John 10:10.

Cathy Kennedy Lending Library

"Love the Lord your God with all your mind."

This week I would like to draw your attention to forty-eight books that we have on our shelves that have been approved to be coherent to Catholic Church teachings. These are found under The Catholic Tradition/IMP. There is a wonderful variety of topics and are all somewhat current. Our library is still evolving, and I will do my best to keep working towards enhancing our dynamic and vibrant little room.

Holy Family Church

The Holy Family Church Choir is hoping to expand our music choices to reflect the cultural diversity of our growing parish! As we praise God in song, we want to try to foster a sense of community in that shared prayer and express our love of God and neighbour.

Please send an email to Gerard Collins at (collinsgerard57@gmail.com) if you have a favourite hymn reflective of your cultural heritage for consideration.

We are excited to try!
