The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

IMPORTANT!! While local Food Banks appreciate your generosity and compassion, it is important for us all to remember a few things:

- If your donation is perishable (that is, if it needs to be refrigerated to stay good) – they cannot accept it.
- Avoid donating foods way past expiry; think about what you'd be willing to feed your own family.
- Food Banks cannot accept anything made in personal kitchens (like baked goods or leftovers).

Food Banks

Holy Family Church (House of Nazareth) - They need razors for men and women, toothbrushes, and any food items.

Holy Ghost and Immaculate Heart of Mary (Albert County Food Bank)

Items required at this time, toothpaste, men's and women's deodorant, cakes of soap, drinking juice boxes, puddings, toilet paper and cleaning supplies.

St. Jude's (Salisbury Helping Hands Food Bank) – Right now, they need deodorant, shampoo, Kleenex, toothpaste, mayonnaise, ketchup, jams, mustard, cereal, and any school snacks! As always, everything is appreciated.

Did You Know?

A miracle of language takes place when the Holy Spirit descends on the Church. Only verse 4 in Acts 2 notes the speaking of various languages, but seven verses emphasize the ability of people to hear and understand! Despite the presence of people from “every nation under heaven” and hence of multiple languages, people are able to hear and understand each other! Perhaps one of the reasons for our difficulties today in hearing, understanding, forgiving, and being at peace with others, is our failure to learn that difference is a gift of the Holy Spirit! The same Holy Spirit does not bring about uniformity; instead, we are gifted with different abilities, roles, and functions.

Exploring Our Faith

EVENTUALLY, WORDS NEED TO BECOME ACTIONS

"Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you."

It has been mentioned to me by wife on more than one occasion that she may need to point out a task that needs to be done more than once to get any results. Guilty as charged in some instances. If I am being honest, the tasks I don't tackle right away are the ones I either don't want to do, or don't feel I can do well. It is interesting that no matter which year we are in our three-year cycle of readings, this Gospel is proclaimed on the Second Sunday of Easter and on Pentecost. On the Second Sunday of Easter, we get a longer version as we hear about Thomas and his realization of who Jesus truly is. In each version though, we hear the command of Jesus to the disciples, and to us, to go. Yet, eight days later when he comes back, they are still locked in that room. They have gotten the "come together" part down, but not so much the "go" part.

I believe that is us as modern-day Christians. In our baptism we are invited to come. To gather with this community of believers, to become a member, to be nourished at both tables, and to be accepted for who we are, children of God. We are good at the "come". Now comes the hard part. This can't be our little secret that only gets shared with the "in crowd". At some point we need to realize that while the word Christian is a noun, it has to be a verb as well. We heard last week on Ascension Sunday, Jesus tell his followers to go and make disciples of all nations. We were told on the Second Sunday of Easter and reminded again today that we have been sent. Back to my original statement; sometimes I have to be told something more than once to get the wheels turning.

Now that we have reached Pentecost, all our candidates have been confirmed or are being confirmed this weekend. They will hear the words, "Be sealed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit." These gifts are for one purpose only and that is to build the kingdom of God. Our baptism has been sealed and we are being equipped for this mission and sent. When I was confirmed 49 years ago, I had no idea that this was the mission that I had just signed up for. I don't think that many of our current 12-year-olds do either. It has taken me a lifetime to identify and develop the unique gifts that God has given me. And building God's kingdom is not for the faint of heart. While it sounds easy enough: "go and make disciples of all nations." The fact is, this is a counter cultural message that we are bringing and not everyone is overjoyed to hear it. Thus, I may drag my feet before answering God's call because, as I said before, I am not 100% confident I will be able to do this well. This is where the gifts of the Holy Spirit that we celebrate at Confirmation and are reminded of today come into play. We just need to continue to tap into those gifts. I start every day with a prayer that I may be open to wherever or whatever God is calling me to today and that in all circumstances my words be God's words and that my actions be to serve God well and to serve God's people. To say I do it perfectly every time would be incorrect. Yet, I do not give up. I continue to try, and I believe that answers the call of Pentecost.

Recently I had an opportunity to take part in formation on Baptism and Confirmation being provided by Archbishop Paul Durocher from Gatineau and he described these two sacraments in this way. When we as parents teach our children to walk, we hold their hands for a while, but eventually we move in front of them with arms extended and say, "come, come". This is baptism. Later, when we are teaching them to ride a bike, we run alongside them holding on to the bike until they can get their balance. Eventually, we take our hands off the bike and say, "go, go." This is Confirmation. This is transforming words into actions.

Pastoral Associate*

Pentecost Sunday

Sunday, May 28th marks the birth of the Church!

From the Apostles, and those who followed in their footsteps, to this present day, we are all members of a long line of followers of Jesus Christ. Why not celebrate this gift from God? Come and join us at 2:00 p.m. at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church for a special celebration for Pentecost. There will be music, a speaker and a witness who will share their personal faith journey. Come enjoy an afternoon of hope, gladness and refreshments! For more information please call Pauline Manderson at 506-854-2557.

Masks at Mass - Mask mandates are lifting across the country, including in our Catholic Churches, marking an end to some of the last remaining public health restrictions against COVID-19 in Canada. This bulletin notice is meant to assure those who are more comfortable wearing a mask, that they may certainly do so, but please know that masks are no longer required.

Ministry – How Are You Called to Serve?

This week, in part three of our series of announcements talking about the various ministries in our church, we would like to focus on the various committees who always welcome fresh eyes and new ideas. Depending on which parish you are in, there are opportunities to serve on parish council, maintenance committee, liturgy committee and others. There are also many fellowship groups such as the Knights of Columbus, the Ladies Society, and also a Senior's group. Please know that you are an important member of our faith family and the gifts that you bring to the table are unique and needed. No one else can offer what you can. If you would like more information, please contact Mark at the office.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Our parish grouping's last Prayer Shawl Ministry meeting of the season will be on Tuesday, May 30th at 10:30 a.m. in the Dan Bohan Centre. Bring your shawls and works-in-progress for a morning of sharing, prayer and fellowship. All are welcome!

Cathy Kennedy Lending Library

The Ragamuffin Gospel reveals that Jesus forgives sins, including sins of the flesh; that He is comfortable with sinners who remember how to show compassion; but that He cannot, and will not, have a relationship with pretenders in the Spirit.

Perhaps the real dichotomy in the Christian community today is not between conservatives and liberals or creationists and evolutionists but between the awake and the asleep. The Christian ragamuffin acknowledges with Macbeth, "Life's but a walking shadow, a poor player that struts and frets his hour upon the stage and then is heard no more." Just as a smart man knows he is stupid, so the awake Christian knows that he/she is a ragamuffin.
