The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Did You Know?

Moved with pity for the troubled, abandoned people before him, Jesus' response is to summon, empower and send his followers to their aid, saying, 'Without cost you have received; without cost, you are to give' (Matthew 10:8). Jesus makes explicit the connection between discipleship with him and service to, and leadership of, those who are lost and in need. Whenever the church becomes more attentive to her own well-being than to her mission to be Christ's Body in the world, she herself becomes lost. What do you think it means to be Christian? Make a list of things you have received without cost, and say a prayer of gratitude for those things. Then let your heart be moved to an act of charity or assistance to those who are troubled and abandoned.

Exploring Our Faith

ENLARGE THE SPACE IN YOUR TENT

Exodus' telling of the Israelites camping in the desert, coupled with Jesus' missioning of the 12 disciples to "go out to the lost sheep of the House of Israel," brought to mind the ongoing Synod on Synodality underway in our Church and its implications for how we as a Church might become less polarized and exclusive, while at the same time becoming more compassionate, loving, and hospitable to everyone Jesus invited to the table. I do not mean my personal guest list of those I like, but Jesus' guest list, which includes...well...everyone.

In 2021, Pope Francis announced a synod on synodality (Synod 2021-2024) to take place in Octobers of 2023 and 2024. This involved, in its early stages, a time of local preparation where parishes around the world were invited to take part. If you happen to be unfamiliar with church synod, Pope Francis has essentially asked us to reflect on how our church can create spaces where she listens to the Holy Spirit through the voice of her faithful. This synod is particularly significant because it recognizes the laity as a voice of The Church in a much broader way.

This Diocesan Stage of the synod involved conversations among many clergy and laity at parish and diocesan levels. You can read the reports as well as a synthesis from the Archdiocese of Moncton on the diocesan website. Pope Francis described these synod conversations as a "time to look others in the eye and listen to what they have to say, to build rapport, to be sensitive to the questions of our sisters and brothers, to let ourselves be enriched by the variety of charisms, vocations, and ministries." According to Francis, this process "is a walk together, and it is what the Lord expects from the Church of the third millennium."

In 18 years of serving in pastoral ministry, I have heard many frustrated people echo some variation of "The church needs to adapt to the world around it, or else it will become irrelevant." I love our Church, and in my own lifetime she has been a personal source of great comfort, belonging, and nearness to God. I also think there is truth to this statement about the need for change, not because I believe God has changed recently but because I believe I have changed and the way in which I understand God has changed. There is a bit of a problem though, and it is not intended as a criticism of anyone in particular, because I think it is a part of our human nature. The problem is that not 100% of the time, but often enough, humans are stark-raving terrified of even the most subtle change to the status quo or challenge to our world view.

I took part in the Continental Phase of the Synod in January of this year, where I participated in conversations with English-speaking faithful from across the United States and Canada. Listening to others from such a multiplicity of backgrounds was fascinating and gave me a much better appreciation of our Church's rich diversity. It was also encouraging to know there are still spaces where we can look one another in the eye and have respectful conversations grounded in good listening.

During the conversation I participated in (which took place on Zoom), every person was given adequate time to speak and share their observations without having someone else roll their eyes, shut them down or disagree with them. It was a powerful exercise in listening. The working document for the Continental Stage of the synod was entitled "Enlarge the Space of Your Tent," taken from Isaiah 54:2. The document states "This tent is a space of communion, a place of participation, and a foundation for mission."

An invitation for some and also a challenge for many, we have been asked to reflect on our meaning when we claim all are welcome, or when we claim God sent Jesus into the world to save everyone, or that God loves each of his children equally. We often say these things but across my time in ministry I have also often heard "All are welcome, but..." or "God loves each of his children equally, but..." In either instance the imposition of "but" changes the meaning of the sentence and takes on more judgment and responsibility than belongs to me.

Through the synodal conversations which took place over the past couple of years, and through today's readings I also hear an invitation to broaden our own tents in outreach and mission; to create space for, make feel welcome those Jesus invited to the table. No buts.

On June 21st, for National Indigenous Peoples Day, we recognize and celebrate the history, heritage, resilience and diversity of First Nations, Inuit and Métis across Canada.

For generations, many Indigenous groups and communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on June 21st or around this time of year because of the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year.

In New Brunswick, residents will have an opportunity to come together in the province's capital to commemorate the history and culture of Indigenous Peoples. The event will begin at 1 p.m. on the doorstep of the New Brunswick Legislature in Fredericton.

Please, wherever you are on the 21st, take the time to reflect on our shared histories and the great contributions of all indigenous peoples on our collective path.

Prayer Day - Wednesday prayer day has wrapped up for the summer. Although there is no formal schedule in place for the summer months, please feel free to come to the church anytime during business hours to pray.

We will resume prayer day in September.

It is with great pride that we present to you St. Elizabeth of the Trinity's Class of 2023!

These young women and men have reached a part of their journey where they must make difficult and exciting decisions about their future.

Matthew Arsenault

Sadie Hudson

Eoghan Keeler

Blake Grossman

Molly Wilson

As they leave high school and go on to further their education or take up a spot in a workplace to provide service to others let us keep them close in our prayers and thoughts. We pray that they will continue to feel the unconditional loving presence of God in their lives and know that they can turn to God in times of pain and adversity, but also in times of joy and celebration. We will hold a piece of them in our hearts always and wish them success and peace throughout their lives.

Happy 99th Birthday to Rita Murphy!!

Please join us in wishing our own dear, Rita Murphy, a fabulous and fun birthday celebration!

Back in the 1950s and early 60s, the only two Catholic churches in the area were St. Bernard's in the city and Our Lady of Ransom (now called Our Lady of Mercy) out the Fredericton Rd. That had to change and Rita Murphy was one of the hardworking parishioners who was front and centre for the opening and dedication of what was then, the new, Holy Family Church! Wonderful Rita!!

PADs – Change is coming soon!

The parish is migrating to a new PAD system. This new system will give us more flexibility to change the donation amounts from month to month, while continuing to provide a safe and secure way to donate to the parish.

The new donation frequency will be monthly only on either the 1st or 15th.

We are projecting for the new system to be active on August 1st. This means that if you donate by PAD to Holy Family or Immaculate Heart of Mary, and your PAD does NOT run on the 1st or 15th, we will need to make a change to the date and the amount of your donation. If your PAD runs weekly, biweekly, or monthly on any date other than the 1st or 15th, please feel free to reach out to Anne at the parish office to discuss your new options. Likewise, please expect a phone call or email from Anne to discuss your options. All your donations are gratefully received and necessary to the operation of our churches – please prayerfully consider your monthly amount.

Please, don't forget your church offering over the summer!

The collection traditionally dips over the summer months but the bills still need to be paid!!! If you will be elsewhere on weekends this summer, help us stay on track by dropping off post-dated cheques, starting a donation by PAD, or using e-transfers (call or email Anne for more information).

Every dollar counts! Thank you.
