The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

IMPORTANT!! While local Food Banks appreciate your generosity and compassion, it is important for us all to remember a few things:

- If your donation is perishable (that is, if it needs to be refrigerated to stay good) – they cannot accept it.
- Avoid donating foods way past expiry; think about what you'd be willing to feed your own family.
- Food Banks cannot accept anything made in personal kitchens (like baked goods or leftovers).

Food Banks

Holy Family Church (House of Nazareth) - They need razors for men and women, toothbrushes, and any food items.

Holy Ghost and Immaculate Heart of Mary (Albert County Food Bank)

Items required at this time, toothpaste, men's and women's deodorant, cakes of soap, drinking juice boxes, puddings, toilet paper and cleaning supplies.

St. Jude's (Salisbury Helping Hands Food Bank) – Right now, they need deodorant, shampoo, Kleenex, toothpaste, mayonnaise, ketchup, jams, mustard, cereal, and any school snacks! As always, everything is appreciated.

Did You Know?

Today's Scriptures reveal that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit cannot be understood apart from their unity.

To be in a relationship with God is to enter into a relationship with all that God is and all that God does. Our union with God is a union of concern for all God has created. We are initiated into that union at baptism, and at that moment, we no longer exist in isolation but are joined with the communion of saints; we become members of a body that we dare to name the body of Christ. Every time we invoke the Trinitarian God, we affirm this truth.

Exploring Our Faith

MAY THEY ALL BE ONE

If you have ever accompanied a person approaching their own death, you know the words they share with you are among the most important words you will ever hear from them. When someone is withing hours or days of death, what preoccupies their hearts and minds tends not to be about last night's Blue Jays game or the price of broccoli. They want to make things right. It's their last chance to say what they always wanted to say. They speak about forgiveness, or gratitude, or their fears or regrets, or of "going to meet their Maker"---heart stuff.

Jesus was no different. He also had a farewell speech, and it spans five chapters in the Gospel of John (Jn. 13:31-17:26). One of the last things he said to his Apostles before his imminent death was, "Father, just as you are in me and I am in you, so they also be one in us," (Jn. 17:21). Speaking from his heart of hearts, Jesus' great desire was that we would all be one.

Let's face it, we are not all one. Just look at the evening news, if you can tough it out for an entire hour, and you will see how divided we are. Just ponder riffs in your own family, and you will notice how not everyone, nor everything, is one.

We may not have much control over many of the divisions in the outside world, but we can make an effort to be one when we gather for Sunday Eucharist. If we cannot be one in our singing, praying, greeting, and body language during Mass, there's little hope it will spread outside of the halls of worship into the larger world.

Good liturgy calls for a unified posture. In the parish grouping of Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity, the unifying posture for the entire Eucharistic Prayer is that we stand (It may be different in your parish grouping). "We are the Body of Christ," and that's not just a saying or a theological concept that has no ramifications for our lives or for our Sunday worship. If St. Paul were to drop in on our Eucharistic celebrations, he would probably ask the same question he posed to the people in Corinth, "Has Christ been divided?" (1 Cor. 1:13). When some people are standing and others are kneeling during the Eucharistic Prayer, I have to conclude that perhaps Christ is divided—that there is no credence in the belief of one Lord, one Spirit, one Church, and one baptism. Everyone is just doing their own thing. The Church's liturgy is never an expression of an individual's personal piety, and it is certainly not an expression of self-righteousness ("I'll show these people what real worship should be about!"). Everything is symbolic in the Mass; nothing is just done for expediency. If that's true, then even our body language communicates something.

In the last five years in particular, all the churches that make up our archdiocese have seen a wonderful influx of people from various parts of the world. Look around and you will notice people from the Philippines, South Korea, Indonesia, South America, Africa, and elsewhere. You are a blessing to the Church, an expression of the Church's richness. However, I challenge you, and everyone else, to be one with the community you worship with. If your desire is to be one with the community you worship with, and that community stands during the Eucharistic Prayer, you stand as well. If your desire is to be one with the worshipping community, and that community kneels at certain points during the Eucharistic Prayer, you kneel as well. If your desire is to be one with the worshipping community, and that community stands on its heads and coughs nickels, you stand on your head and cough nickels. Always strive to be one with the community you are worshipping with. Unity must trump all other concerns, even if we think everyone around us is doing it wrong.

I've visited St. Peter's Basilica in Rome. I've also visited St. John Lateran Church in Rome (the mother church of all churches in the world), and numerous churches and basilicas all over Europe. One of the things I've noticed is that none of them have fixed pews or kneelers. Pews and kneelers came very late in the Church's history of worship. Maybe they had a better grasp of "uniformity of posture," of "togetherness" than we have.

My point is, "when in Rome, do as the Romans do." It not only provides for good liturgy, but it also fulfills Jesus' dying desire, "that they all be one, Father, as I am in you, and you are in me."

Sacrament of Baptism

Through the Sacrament of Holy Baptism, we welcome,
Tilly Chelsea, beloved daughter of Chris and Madison
Malia Carmelita, beloved daughter of Brian and Aylish

May the grace and blessings received at Baptism guide each of you throughout your lives, and may this holy occasion bring your families great joy.

God bless you little ones – beautiful children of God!

This year's GRAD MASS for the parish grouping will take place on Sunday, June 11th at the 10:30 a.m. Mass at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church.

Letters have been sent out to our youth who are in grade 12 this year. If you're a grad who didn't get a letter, or if you know of a grad who didn't get a letter, please contact the Catechism office at 506-387-4198 or by email at catechism.set@gmail.com to get all the details.

Ministry – How Are You Called to Serve?

This week, in the last of series of announcements talking about the various ministries in our church, we would like you to consider ministries that may not be as public. We are in need of pastoral care people who could bring communion to those who are homebound. If you have a flare for environment and are creative, then perhaps working with our church environment team may interest you. And we are always in need of sacristans. (These are the people that care for the altar linens and cloths used at Mass.) If any of these interest you, or anything else you have read over these four weeks, please call the office. We would love to hear from you.

Book Review – Compassion by Christina Feldman

We are prone to idealize those who find nobility of heart in the midst of the greatest suffering. In reality, they are ordinary people, like any of us. To call them survivors would be to diminish their courage and commitment to healing. They have not transcended sorrow; their hearts still ache and grieve. Sometimes, in the midst of the greatest bitterness and resentment, you come to realize that you can never heal our own spirit as long as bitterness lives there. To rescue yourself, you must rescue those who have harmed you from the power of your own rage.

Wishes of love to Marion Doherty on her 101st Birthday!

Back in the 1950's, Joe and Marion Doherty were part of a group of Catholic families who found temporary locations for Mass within Riverview, all the while working with the Archdiocese to get approval to build a Catholic church on this side of the river.

To this day, we continue to worship at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, built because of the dedication and devotion of people of faith like the Doherty's.

Thank you Marion and may God bless your special day!

PADs - Change is coming soon!

The parish is migrating to a new PAD system. This new system will give us more flexibility to change the donation amounts from month to month, while continuing to provide a safe and secure way to donate to the parish. The new donation frequency will be monthly only on either the 1st or 15th. We are projecting for the new system to be active on August 1st. This means that if you donate by PAD to Holy Family or Immaculate Heart of Mary, and your PAD does NOT run on the 1st or 15th, we will need to make a change to the date and the amount of your donation. If your PAD runs weekly, biweekly, or monthly on any date other than the 1st or 15th, please feel free to reach out to Anne at the parish office to discuss your new options. Likewise, please expect a phone call or email from Anne to discuss your options. All your donations are gratefully received and necessary to the operation of our churches – please prayerfully consider your monthly amount.
