The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726.

The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Did you know?

In today's Gospel, we hear about the "little ones" (Mt 11:25). For Jesus "the little ones" are those who are not so full of their own wisdom that they are oblivious to the revelations of God. Like children, they are always open to learning and are amazed at what can help them to grow in understanding the world around them.

These are the people that Jesus invites to hear his word and to come to know the Father. Even when they might find that difficult, he assures them and us that his "burden is light" (11:30). In other words, he is always there to help us to walk with us and to share our journey.
