The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the "Treaties of Peace and Friendship" which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726. The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi'kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Welcome to our parish grouping! If you are new to any of our churches, please reach out to the parish office to find out more about the life and work of our parishes!

Peer Support Initiative

The Reconnect Churches group are exploring the expansion of

"Peer Support" as a potential hopeful means to help in mitigation of the homelessness crisis in Moncton area and throughout New Brunswick. Peer Support is when persons with similar life experiences and challenges "provide knowledge, experience, emotional, social or practical help to each other". We would welcome your support, thoughts and prayers for success in this endeavor. If you would like to learn more, or be part of this effort, please contact

Robert MacKay at 506- 961-7182 or email at RobertMacKayToronto@live.com.

We Are Looking for Help

As you are aware, we have new screens being installed in our worship space soon and we will be able to put the words to our hymns on the screens as opposed to having songbooks in the pews. Having said that, we are looking to establish a team of volunteers who can help us create the library of songs that will be downloaded onto the laptop. If this is something you feel you can help with, please call the church office and give us your name.

Training will be provided.

Do you have a battery wall clock that you are no longer using? Anne needs a clock for her wall. If you have one to pass along, please let Anne at the parish office know.

We are looking for volunteers to make and serve coffee on Sundays after mass, If this is something you or your family can do we would be grateful for your help. Please send an email to Debbie at the parish office and she will put you on the schedule. Currently we are looking to fill spots for Aug 4th and Sept 22nd. Thanks !

SCUBA: Diving into Friendship with God! Karen and Trevor would like to thank all our collaborators who helped make our 2024 Vacation Bible School a successful event. A large group of dedicated volunteers and staff worked diligently for several weeks preparing for this popular event. In addition, the financial donations we received from local groups and organizations helped in a very significant way to ensure a quality program to help strengthen children in their faith.

Thank you also to Immaculate Heart of Mary Parish which generously provided space and resources, allowing us to take over the church and parish hall for a week. Finally, we are grateful for the children who joined us and their families for taking advantage of this opportunity. We had a full house! We are already looking ahead to next year! ~Karen and Trevor

Exploring our Faith

Perseverance

The readings this Sunday have a focus on death. The first reading from the Book of Wisdom says that God neither makes nor delights in death. Mark's Gospel talks about the impending and eventual death of Jarius' daughter. Don't tell Wayne, but I too have spent much time over the past year thinking about death. On March 20, 2023, I was diagnosed with a meningioma tumor; on May 6 of this year, I was diagnosed with breast cancer; on June 19th I was told the breast cancer tumor was aggressive; and on June 26th I began chemotherapy. Death has been much on my mind.

However, it is not the death, and eventual resurrection of Jarius' daughter that drew my attention in this Gospel reading. It is the story told in the few verses in the middle of that story – a story you would not even hear if the shorter version of the Gospel were proclaimed. It is the story of the hemorrhaging woman. If you happened to catch the episode where this is covered in the television series on the life of Jesus called The Chosen, it was depicted exceptionally well.

During the time of Jesus, and for centuries before that, in the Hebrew (and maybe even other) cultures, someone who was bleeding was considered ritually unclean. In fact, during their menstrual cycle, women were separated from their husbands, and spent time in a separate tent. While Anita Diamant's book The Red Tent speaks about women gathering in a tent during this time of the month, usually women spent the time alone and isolated. In The Chosen we see the hemorrhaging woman going to great pains to hide her condition. She has been excluded from the community. She is alone and unsupported. And she has been suffering thus for 12 years. Twelve years!

Can you imagine at a time when you most need the love and support of your family, your friends, your community that you are unable to receive it? It is inconceivable to me. In these ten short verses we hear this woman's story. After spending all that she had seeking a cure – a cure that will allow her to return to her community once again - she is no better but worse. And so, in faith ... or is it desperation? What has she got to lose? ... she works hard, within the crowds that press around him, to simply touch the cloak of Jesus, in the hopes that she will be healed.

Why does she not approach Jesus directly, as did so many others, to ask for this cure? By this time in his ministry, his reputation as a healer had grown. Many have come to him; many have been healed. He turns no one away. The hemorrhaging woman approaches indirectly because she knows that someone in her condition – someone ritually unclean – would make anyone she touched unclean also. Maybe she feels it is not worth the risk of rejection. Yet when confronted by Jesus, she owns up to what she has done, indicating courage, as well as faith.

Amid all I am living now, I hear that woman's story in a new way. How impossibly difficult it must have been for her to suffer as she did - alone, isolated, shunned. My heart breaks for her. Here sit I, 2000+ years later – with the best advances of medicine, an educated and compassionate medical team working on my behalf, surrounded by the loving support of family and friends, comforted, and encouraged by their words and their actions.

Our stories, they are very different. Still, here we are – two women of faith, who must trust. And hope. And have courage.

Ellen
