The St. Elizabeth of the Trinity parish grouping acknowledges that we carry out our worship and ministry on the traditional unceded territory of the Mi’kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet) Peoples. This territory is covered by the “Treaties of Peace and Friendship” which these nations first signed with the British Crown in 1726. The treaties did not deal with surrender of lands and resources but, in fact, recognized Mi’kmaq and Wəlastəkwiyik title and established the rules for what was to be an ongoing relationship between nations.

Welcome to our parish grouping! If you are new to any of our churches, please reach out to the parish office to find out more about the life and work of our parishes!

BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD

During the month of November, a Book of the Names of the Dead will be placed in each of our churches for all parishioners to write in the names of deceased family and friends, who will be prayed for at each Mass during the month. Also, a table will be set up in each Church to display pictures of our dearly departed and candles will be lit for all at each Mass throughout November.

On this Remembrance Day, Nov 11th, 2024 we pause in silence and reflect on the courage of those who fought for our freedom. Praise God for the privileges we experience in Canada, and pray for those around the world who do not have the same rights and freedoms. This is a day to pray for peace. Thank you Veterans for your service and thank you to the families for their sacrifice! Following the service, the Knights invite you for a hot lunch at the Dan Bohan Center of soup, hot dogs, tea, coffee & lemonade for a free will offering. Frozen Soup available for take out ($5).

Happy birthday Fr. Phil! As you celebrate your special day, may the light of your spirit shine brighter than ever. May you walk your spiritual path with grace and purpose. On behalf of us all, we wish you an amazing day!

Looking for Help !

You may not know, but every Sunday we have folks who visit each Grass Home here in Riverview to pray with the Roman Catholic residents and bring them communion. Recently, some of our team members have had to step back. If you think you can help, please prayerfully consider if this ministry is for you. You can go to the home and still be back to Immaculate Heart in plenty of time for mass. Also, training will be provided. If this interests you, or you would like more information, please call Mark at the OFFICE.

GOOD NEWS concerning our Audio-Visual project.

Just as I'm about to write this, I'm interrupted by a parishioner with a $1,000 cheque for the screen project. We are now up to $48,299 (I'm not sure who gave us the $4 but thank-you from the bottom of my heart). I want to thank Bonnie and Wayne who took it upon themselves to make rosaries, jewelry, and plant stands and donate the proceeds to the fund. Gratitude is also sent to all of you who have made a special offering or topped up your contributions with $5 here and $10 there. It all adds up. Though we've had a few glitches, we're also learning to mitigate them. If you haven't yet contributed to "Mulligan's Monkeys" you can do so by cheque payable to Immaculate Heart of Mary, P.A.D., e-transfer ihmc.set@gmail.com, or hit the DONATE button at www.setmoncton.com. Thank you for your generosity.

EXPLORING OUR FAITH

November – Depressing or Uplifting?

When I was young and thought time just seemed to be dragging on, my mother used to tell me that once you get out of school, time will fly. And the older you get, the quicker it will seem to go. Along with many other things she told me, this has certainly proven to be true. It seems like summer just finished, yet here we are heading for the middle of November already. I have heard many people say that the month they struggle the most to get through and stay positive is January, but, for me, it's November. It's the month when all those beautifully coloured trees of October are bare, and the leaves are lying on the ground waiting for me to pick them up. It's the month when the clocks go back, and we are plunged into darkness before we can sit down for supper. It is also the month that our daughter was diagnosed with cancer in 2011. Something we don't dwell on, but also never forget.

But, on a more positive note, in church world, and in society, this is also the month when we honour those who have gone before us and those who have made the ultimate sacrifice in protecting our freedom. While for some people this may seem morbid, for me it is an opportunity to look back and think about all the people who had a hand in shaping the person I am today, in how I try to live my life serving God and serving the people God has put in my life.

This past week I was able to attend our Mass of Remembrance where we honour those connected to our parish unit who have passed away in the last year. Their families are invited to write a short message about their loved one and what they meant to them, which is read aloud by Fr. Phil at this mass as the deceased member's picture is displayed on our overhead screens. It is so heartwarming, and also heart wrenching to hear the beautiful words that these families have written about their loved ones. Nobody talks about their career or what they were able to accumulate in their time here on earth. What they remember is how this person touched them in a way that will never be forgotten and how life won't be the same without them. I always hope that what they have written about their loved one for this occasion, they were able to say to them while they were still alive.

I mention this experience and these tributes to make a point. I believe that the love expressed for these folks is a mere fraction of the love they will experience as they come face-to-face with God. I have said before, and will say again that I believe the birth and the death experience are very similar. I think there can be anxiety in leaving the only world you have ever known for the unknown. I believe in both birth and death we are moving to a place of light like we could have never imagined. And, I believe in both instances, we finally get to meet the one who has sustained us from the very first moment of our existence.

Sometimes, I forget this. Sometimes, I can get so wrapped up in things I could have done better, or parts of my personality that I wish were different, or faults that I just can't seem to overcome, that I forget how amazing this God is who created me. This God for whom it is unthinkable that any of us would be lost, and not with Him. As any parent who reads this knows, you can never truly rest until you know your kids are home and safe (lost sheep, lost coin, prodigal son). November is the month that brings this into focus for me. So, as we take time this month to honour our loved ones who have gone before us, let us never forget that while we don't see them physically, they are anything but gone. They are closer to us now than they ever could have been while they were walking this earth. You know, maybe November is not such a bad month after all.

EVOLVING FAITH IN AN EVOLVING UNIVERSE

Telling our sacred Story

November 5th
The history...

November 12th
Continuing with Ilia as she leads us through our evolving faith in our ever-evolving universe.

Ilia believes that love energy was at the heart of the Big Bang, the heart of ‘Let there be light’ and that we must see God’s loving presence in all of creation, (even in small and fearsome creatures, like snakes and jellyfish 😊). As in the natural world, humans too, need to create a community where a person is valued in his or her rich diversity.

In this time of continuing crises, we deeply need a transforming vision that opens the future to new hope!
