Martha welcomes Jesus into her home. Mary has chosen the better part. Luke 10.38-42

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including; for those who have died including Terry Hebb (close friend of Wayne, Ellen and Marc;

Bob Sanderson, William Ward , and Joe Esson

and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

Jesus lifts up the beautiful care God has for all creation. The beautiful care is for us, too. We need not worry about what is to come because our lives are in the hands of the One who loves us. We are able to live in hope. (P. 245, SB 2024)

IHM is having a fundraiser Yard Sale at the Dan Bohan Center on Saturday July 26th from 8:00am till Noon
Items can be dropped off at the Dan Bohan hall on Friday, July 25th 10 am – 7:00 pm

IF YOU HAVEN'T NOTICED. our library inventory is now on-line!
Thank you, Trevor Droesbeck, for your enthusiasm and expertise with this project. This led the way to a new service program offered by Fr. Phil. Please check on-line or speak with the office for details.

Our library just received an influx of new books and a NEW section to house them (until incorporation on-line) has been created on the left side as you walk in the door. A listing of the new books is available on the shelf. For those of you in our outer parish churches the office has been provided with a copy as well.

We are back Collecting used postage stamps– They are collected by parishioners and sorted by Art Gillard, who prepares them for missions. The stamps are then sent to be sold to collectors, raising funds for missionaries abroad. Thank you to everyone involved in this worthy effort.

Eucharist as Touchstone (Part 1)

Jesus Says, “If you eat this bread your will live forever” (John 6:51). You’re indestructible, as it were. You see, If I live by the momentary identity that others give me, that’s what dies when I die, and I’m left with nothing. Your relative identity is what passes away. When Jesus says he’s giving Himself to you as the “bread of life” and if you eat this bread, you will live forever,” he’s saying,” Find yourself in Me, and this will not pass or change or die. Eat this food as your primary nutrition, and you are indestructible. “You learn to live in what Thomas Merton would call the True Self- who you are, and always have been, in God. Who you are in God is who you forever are. In fact, that’s all you are, and it is more than enough. Everything else is passing away. Reputations, titles, and roles do not determine our identity. As Paul puts it, “I live no longer; not I, but God lives in me” (Galatians 2:20). When I hand out the bread I love to say to the assembly, “You become what you eat. Come and eat who you are!”

Eucharist is presence encountering presence- mutuality, vulnerability. There is nothing to prove, to protect, or to sell. It feels so empty, naked, and harmless, that all you can do is be present. The Eucharist is telling us that God is the food and all we have to do is provide the hunger. Somehow, we have to make sure that each day we are hungry, that there’s room inside of us for another presence. If you are filled with your own opinions, ideas, righteousness, superiority, or sufficiency, you are a world unto yourself and there is no room for “another”. Despite all our attempts to define who is worthy and who is not worthy to receive communion, our only ticket or prerequisite for coming to Eucharist is hunger. And most often sinners are much more hungry than the “saints”.

We would like to acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.

Please extend your support to the People that support us.
