Jesus remember me when you come into your kingdom. Luke 23.32-43

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including Trevor Droesbeck, Andrez Marciszewski, Gregory Hachey (son of John & Diane), Joanne Bastarache, Cory and Donald Berubé; and for those who have died and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

It may seem that Jesus speaks from far away – from heaven or from 2000 years ago – but He is present to you today in your hearts. He ascended into heaven, but his Holy Spirit makes him present within you and within the Church. Place all your trust in Him who comes to you with all the love of God. Pray that we may have eyes to see God where we might not expect to recognize him.

As winter approaches, local food banks are in need of support!

- House Of Nazareth (Holy Family)
- Albert County Food Bank (Immaculate Heart of Mary)
- Shepody Food Bank (Holy Ghost)
- Salisbury Helping Hands (St Jude's)

Your contributions are appreciated.

Canned goods, cereal, rice, spaghetti sauce, soap, toothpaste, shampoo, dish soap etc.

We encourage giving generously, as reflected in 2 Corinthians 9:7: "God loves a cheerful giver."

BOOK OF THE NAMES OF THE DEAD

In November, each church will have a Book of the Names of the Dead for parishioners to add names of deceased loved ones, who will be remembered at every Mass. A table in each church will also display photos of the departed, and candles will be lit for them throughout the month.

Donations in memory of loved ones are being accepted for Christmas and year-round church displays. Names will be listed in the bulletin. To participate, contact the Parish Office at (506-386-6178) or submit your donation via envelope at Mass, by mail, or online. Thank you for your support!

REFLECTIONS: THE SIGNATURE ON EACH SOUL

Reflections, C.S. Lewis Institute

There have been times when I think we do not desire heaven; but more often I find myself wondering whether, in our heart of hearts, we have ever desired anything else. You may have noticed that the books you really love are bound together by a secret thread. You know very well what is the common quality that makes you love them, though you cannot put it into words: but most of your friends do not see it at all, and often wonder why, liking this, you should also like that...

Are not all lifelong friendships born at the moment when at last you meet another human being who has some inkling (but faint and uncertain even in the best) of that something which you were born desiring, and which, beneath the flux of other desires and in all the momentary silences between the louder passions, night and day, year by year, from childhood to old age, you are looking for, watching for, listening for? You have never had it. All the things that have ever deeply possessed your soul have been but hints of it – tantalizing glimpses, promises never quite fulfilled, echoes that died away just as they caught your ear. But if it should really become manifest – if there ever came an echo that did not die away but swelled into the sound itself – you would know it. Beyond all possibility of doubt you would say 'Here at last is the thing I was made for.' We cannot tell each other about it. It is the secret signature of each soul, the incommunicable and unappeasable want, the thing we desired before we met our wives or made our friends or chose our work, and which we shall still desire on our deathbeds....

This signature on each soul may be a product of heredity and environment, but that only means that heredity and environment are among the instruments whereby God creates a soul. I am considering not how, but why, He makes each soul unique. If He had no use for all these differences, I do not see why He should have created more souls than one. Be sure that the ins and outs of your individuality are no mystery to Him; and one day they will no longer be a mystery to you. The mould in which a key is made would be a strange thing, if you had never seen a key; and the key itself a strange thing if you had never seen a lock. Your soul has a curious shape because it is a hollow made to fit a particular swelling in the infinite contours of the Divine substance, or a key to unlock one of the doors in the house with many mansions. For it is not humanity in the abstract that is to be saved, but you – you, the individual reader, John Stubbs or Janet Smith. Blessed and fortunate creature, your eyes shall behold Him and not another's. All that you are, sins apart, is destined, if you will let God have His good way, to utter satisfaction... Your place in heaven will seem to be made for you and you alone, because you were made for it – made for it stitch by stitch as a glove is made for a hand.¹

Let us be thankful that God loves us as individuals and that we can have a personal relationship with Him.

"We love because he first loved us."

1 JOHN 4:19 (ESV)

A thought for this Advent Season.....

If, as Herod, we fill our lives with things, and again with more things, if we consider ourselves so unimportant that we must fill every moment of our lives with action, when will we have the time to make the long, slow journey across the desert, as did the Magi? Or sit and watch the stars, as did the shepherds? Or brood over the coming of the child, as did Mary?

For each of us, there is a desert to travel, a star to discover, and a being within ourselves to bring to life.

We would like to acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.
