Here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!
 - John 1.29-34

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including Trevor Droesbeck, Gregory Hachey, Joanne Bastarache, Lyla Teed, Annette MacKinnon, and Louis LeBlanc (brother of Marie Betts and Eric); and for those who have died and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

It can be overwhelming to think of oneself as a disciple and someone whom the Lord has chosen to preach the Good News. That is why it is important to realize we don't do it alone; we are part of a community of disciples that is the church. We are never alone in our call. Think of all the toys and clothes that have been passed down to you from your older sibling or cousins or friends. Just as those things got passed down to you, so has faith been passed down to you. Now it is your turn to pass it on. (p.233, SB2025)

Your faithful generosity helps us plan out our financial year – also, thank you to all of you who have increased your church offering either by envelope, PAD, or online – thank you for prayerfully offering these additional donations to our church. Help us do God’s work in our parishes and communities!

For all donors by envelope: Are you using offering envelopes from any year other than 2025?

Prayer for the Renewal of Our Archdiocese: In December, a new prayer booklet was distributed in our parishes as part of a diocesan initiative for the missionary renewal of our Archdiocese. How to Participate:

- Use the prayer booklet to pray daily for the renewal of our Archdiocese.
- In the coming weeks, you will be invited to sign a commitment form if you wish to commit to daily prayer.
- The forms will be available in the parish (details to follow).

Those who make this commitment will receive a Ste-Thérèse medal, and a monthly Mass will be celebrated for their intentions.

Seniors are increasingly targeted by various scams, including Medicare fraud, tech support scams, and romance scams. Here's a list of common scams to be aware of in 2026.

Scam Alert: If you receive an email purporting to be from Fr. Phil Mulligan or Archbishop Guy Desrochers requesting money, gift cards or any personal favors, please do not respond. Such communications are fraudulent. Always check the email address philstoryguy@hotmail.com or arch@diocesemoncton.ca

Common Tricks: Watch for fake fraud alerts, Medicare enrollment scams, sweepstakes schemes, and AI voice cloning.

Healthcare Fraud: Be alert to false benefits, bogus medical offers, and voice-assistant scams.

Red Flags: Pressure, secrecy, or urgency are clear signs of a scam attempt.

Money Safety: If told to "move money" or share personal details, it's always fraudulent.

Grandparent Scams: How it works: A caller pretends to be a grandchild in trouble (e.g., in jail or injured) and asks for urgent money.

Red flag: Caller insists on secrecy and requests wire transfers or gift cards.

Trust: You Are Being Guided

The full life of faith becomes a life of deep joy and rest. Once you are "grafted to the Vine," to use Jesus' words (Jn. 15:4-5), you really don't have to be anxious about many things (Lk. 10:40). You really don't have to be worried about the next moment or about tomorrow (Mt. 6:34). What you can trust is that you are being guided; in fact, almost everything is seen as guidance. It's your ability to trust that there is a guidance available which allows it to become guidance! You realize that God is letting this happen to you now to teach you something, to show you something, or to love you in a new way. Basically you switch from the fixing, fully understanding, and controlling mode to the trusting, listening, and allowing mode. Then you start allowing the Divine Flow instead of stopping it with a no and a question mark.

The Spirit in you allows you to trust that there's a reason for this; God is even in this. That does not mean you can't finally work to change things or to improve things, in fact, quite the contrary. But I'm saying that when a yes and not a no first comes to your soul and to your heart, then you can see God in the moment and see guidance in this event being given to you by the provident hand of God. You can trust nothing is wasted. If there are changes and fixes that have to be made, you can do it in an appropriate, calm, and positive way. That is what characterizes a mature believer in any religion.

Faith, as seen in the Hebrew Scriptures and Jesus' usage of the same, is much closer to our words of "trust" or "confidence" than it is about believing doctrines to be true (which demands almost no ego surrender or real change of the small self). We have wasted too many centuries now defending such an intellectual notion of Biblical faith. Real faith people are, quite simply, usable for larger purposes because they live in and listen to a much larger Self.

We would like to acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.
