Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity

We acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.

I am the way, and the truth, and the life. John 14.1-12

Lord hear our prayers

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including
*Darlene Berthelot, Patrick Delahunt, Lisa Williams, Barry Cochrane (brother of Ken),
 and Itsay Mendora Morales;*
and for those who have died including Linda Wandless (sister of Suzanne Collins) and Joan Frontain;
and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

Did you know?

Jesus wants us to understand that the feelings we nurture within us have out-comes in the world. We cannot always control how we feel about something. But we can choose to feed these feelings by giving them our attention and focus. We are always able to choose how we react to the feelings we experience. Our loving God calls us to root out violence from our hearts and our lives. We are to turn away from all that harm so that we may live abundantly. (p. 242, SB 2024)

Make it monthly in May!

Have you considered a pre-authorized donation before? Have you asked yourself why not? Much like your household bills, you can budget your church offering and make it monthly! Options include a monthly withdrawal from your bank account (PAD) or a monthly withdrawal from your credit card (Canadahelps). The benefits? No more searching for cash or cheques before mass; you can budget the amount and work it into your monthly financial plan; you have made your parish a priority for you and your family! Myth: If I have a PAD, I can't divide my donation into church support and other funds (like building fund, social action). False! You can tell let the office know how you wish your donation to be divided. Myth: If I set up a PAD, it's difficult to change it. False! It is simple and secure to manage – simply let the business office know if you want to increase, decrease or stop your PAD donations.

Reach out to the parish office for more information! Thank you to all parishioners who support our parish!

Carlo Acutis

The Saint who loved Spider-Man

Did you know?

Carlo Acutis, the first millennial saint, loved dressing up as Spider-Man and was a big fan of video games.

One of the Catholic Church's newest declared saints is St. Carlo Acutis. He was born on May 3, 1991, and died from leukemia at the age of 15 on October 12, 2006. The Church declared him a saint (along with Pier Giorgio Frassati) on September 7, 2025. Carlo was born in London, England on May 3rd and baptized in Chelsea (West London) two weeks later on May 18th, 1991. That same month his parents moved to Milan, Italy, where Carlo was raised. He was the eldest child to parents Andrea Acutis and Antonia Salzano neither of whom were religious. They were both from wealthy Italian families. His mother, Antonia, grew up in a secular family and did not attend Mass until Carlo was baptized. She testified that her son's faith and insistent questions brought her back to the faith.

At three years old, Carlo's maternal grandfather died but not before Carlo witnessed him receiving the Sacrament of the Sick. This impacted Carlo, and from then on he insisted she take him to visit churches. His grandfather was said to have appeared to him asking for prayer. After his First Communion at age seven, Carlo participated at Mass regularly and developed a strong fondness for Eucharistic adoration.

Carlo was active in his parish and, for the most part, lived the life of a typical child and teenager. He created a website documenting Eucharistic miracles and Marian apparitions. At age 12, Carlo became a catechist to his peers in his local parish. He showed an interest in the lives of the Saints including the life of St. Francis of Assisi.

Carlo developed an inflammation in his throat around October 1st, 2006; it was parotitis. On October 8th he was diagnosed with acute promyelocytic leukemia. When the doctors treating him asked if he had any pain, he replied that, "there are many people who suffer much more than me." His final words to his mother were, "Mom, don't be afraid. Since Jesus became a man, death has become the passage towards life, and we don't need to flee it. Let us prepare ourselves to experience something extraordinary in the eternal life." On October 12, 2006, he passed away.

Here are just a few quotes that came from this teenager's mouth.

"To always be close to Jesus, that's my life plan."

"All people are born as originals but many die as photocopies."

"Sadness is looking at ourselves, happiness is looking towards God."

"We don't need superpowers to be saints, we just need to love."

"Everything fades, anyway. What will make us truly beautiful in the eyes of God is only the way in which we loved Him and how we loved our neighbors."

Fr. Phil

Relics of St. Carlo Acutis

You are invited to venerate a relic (locks of hair) of St. Carlo Acutis and to learn more about his life here at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church this coming Tuesday (May 5th) from 3-4 p.m. followed by the celebration of the Eucharist at 4 p.m. Just canonized six months ago, Carlo is the patron saint of the Internet. He believed the internet could be a means to bringing people to God and he used it as such. It's not the relic which is of primary importance, otherwise faith risks becoming magic or superstition. Rather, relics serve to give us a glimpse into how God's grace or favour worked through a particular Saint. Of course that same grace is at work in all of us who are also called to grow in holiness. Sometimes we need a little help growing in holiness from our brothers and sisters who are already in the Communion of Saints.

Thank you for being a part of our parish grouping!
