Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity

We acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.

My flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. John 6.51-59

Lord Hear Our Prayers

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including Sheldon Phaneuf Sr., Gordon Trail, Billy Brennan, Jean Paul Daigle, Joanne Bastarache, Mary Lamey, Charles O'Hara (father of Teresa), Grace Elderkin, Bert Cole (husband of Diane) and Heather Ayles (daughter of Anne); and for those who have died including Claude Gauvin (brother in-law of Lilliane); and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

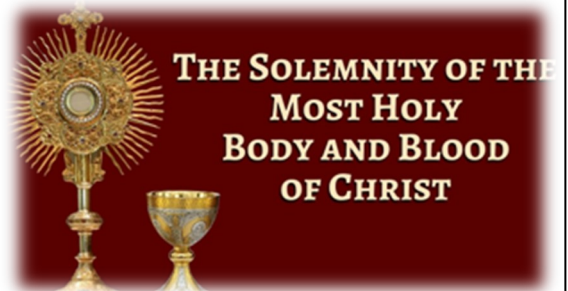

Grow in Christ

Did you know? The people of Israel understood how important the shepherd was to the survival of the sheep. When Jesus called himself the Good Shepherd, they understood that Jesus would protect them and lead them to life. (p. 184, AB 2024)

LOVE NEEDS A FACE

It is probably St. Francis of Assisi (c. 1182-1226) who first brought attention to the humanity of Jesus within organized Christianity. During its first thousand years, the Church was mainly concerned with proving that Jesus was God. Prior to St. Francis, paintings of Jesus largely emphasized Jesus' divinity, as they still do in most Eastern icons. Francis is said to have created the first live nativity scene. Before the thirteenth century, Christmas was no big deal. The emphasis was on the high holy days of Holy Week and Easter, as it seems it should be. But for Francis, incarnation was already redemption. For God to become a human being among the poor, born in a stable among the animals, meant that it's good to be a human being, that flesh is good, and that the world is good—in its most simplest and humble form.

In Jesus, God was given a face and a heart. God became someone we could love. While God can be described as a moral force, as consciousness, and as a high vibrational energy, the truth is, we don't (or can't) fall in love with abstractions. So God became a person "that we could hear, see with our eyes, look at, and touch with our hands" (1 John 1:1). The brilliant Jewish philosopher Emmanuel Levinas (1905-1995) said the only thing that really converts people is "an encounter with the face of the other," and I think he learned that from his own Hebrew Scriptures.

When the face of the other (especially the suffering face) is revealed and empathized with, it leads to transformation of our whole being. It creates a moral demand on our heart that is far more compelling than laws. Just giving people commandments on tablets of stone doesn't change the heart. It may steel the will, but it doesn't soften the heart like an I-Thou encounter can. Many of the Christian mystics talk about seeing the divine face or falling in love with the face of Jesus. We are mirrored into life, not by concepts, but by faces delighting in us, giving us the beloved self-image we can't give to ourselves. Love is the gaze that does us in! How blessed are those who get it early and receive it deeply.

If God is Trinity and Jesus is the face of God, then it is indeed a benevolent universe. God is not someone to be afraid of but is the very Ground of Being and is inherently, objectively, and concretely on our side. To trust this is to have faith (which is quite different than going to church or obeying some commandments).

(Quote from Fr. Richar Rohr)

The Great Unveiling!

Members of Immaculate Heart of Mary, along with anyone else in the parish grouping, you are invited to an unveiling of a wonderful piece of art. It's a painting of the 'Immaculate Heart of Mary' by one of our own parishioners, artist Paul Nowlan. This painting will find a permanent place on one of the walls in I.H.M church. Paul will also share some words about how and why he painted this piece the way he did. Please join us this coming Wednesday, June 10th at 6:30 p.m. in the church.

Thank you for being a part of our parish grouping!
