Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity

We acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.

My flesh is true food and my blood is true drink. John 6.51-59

Lord Hear Our Prayers

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including Joanne Bastarache, Mary Lamey, Charles O'Hara (father of Teresa), Grace Elderkin, Bert Cole (husband of Diane), Heather Ayles (daughter of Anne), Marven Buckley (husband of Dianne) , and Trevor Droesbeck; and for those who have died and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

Did you know?

Many times in our life God has surprised us, surpassing all understanding. God is working impossible things in each and everyone of us. May we all strive to transform our " How can this be ?" to a "Let it be." (p. 170, SB 2024)

Class of 2026

It is with great pride that we present to you St Elizabeth of the Trinity Class of 2026. These young women and men have reached a part of their journey where they must make difficult and exciting decisions about their future. As they leave high school and go on to further their education or take up a spot in a workplace to provide service to others let us keep them close in our prayers and thoughts. We pray that they will continue to feel the unconditional loving presence of God in their lives and know that they can turn to God in times of pain and adversity, but also in times of joy and celebration. We will hold a piece of them in our hearts always and wish them success and peace throughout their lives.

Annual Collection for the Indigenous Reconciliation Fund

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for your great generosity during last year's fourth collection, which enabled our diocese to raise $10,627.97. A big thank you to all the faithful who contributed, as well as to those who organized fundraising activities.

The Catholic bishops of Canada have committed to raising $30 million from 2022 through 2026. We have reached our final collection this year, as the five-year period will conclude in early fall 2026. The funds are managed by a national board of directors composed of leaders, half of whom are Indigenous. This Board is responsible for implementing measures to ensure the proper functioning and transparency of the administration of the funds raised.

I am pleased to inform you that the funds collected in our parishes over the past five years will be used for local projects in collaboration with our four Mi'gmaq communities: Elsipogtog First Nation, Bouctouche Mi'kmaq, Fort Folly First Nation, and Indian Island First Nation.

Special envelopes will be distributed to parishes for this collection, which will take place on June 27 and 28. I invite you to continue supporting this fund. Thank you again for your spirit of solidarity with our Indigenous brothers and sisters and for the generous contributions you have made over the past five years.

If you are donating by cheque, please make it payable to YOUR CHURCH. Thank you!

JESUS' ALTERNATIVE REALITY

I am told there are three kinds of cultures in the Western world today, each with its own “bottom line”: political cultures based on the manipulation of power, economic cultures based on the manipulation of money, and religious cultures based on the manipulation of some theory about God. These three cultures are based on different forms of violence, although it is usually denied by most participants and hidden from the superficial observer. Evil gains its power from disguise. Jesus undid the mask of disguise and revealed that our true loyalty was seldom really to God, but to power, money, and group belonging. (In fact, religion is often the easiest place to hide from God).

Jesus announced, lived, and inaugurated a new social order, an alternative to violence, exclusion, and separation. Jesus went so far as to promise this alternate reality. It is no fantastical utopia, but a very real and achievable peace—by the grace of God. He called it the Reign or Kingdom of God. It is the subject of his inaugural address (Lk. 4:14-30), his Sermon on the Mount (Mt. 5-7), and most of his parables. Indeed, it is the guiding image of Jesus' entire ministry. Most Christians glibly recite, “Thy Kingdom come,” but this means almost nothing until and unless they also say, “My kingdom go.”

Challenging the status quo is unpopular. Jesus was killed for opposing the religious and political powers of his time. “It is better for one man to die for the people” (Jn. 18:14) than to question the bottom line that is holding the whole system together.

When Christians accept that Jesus was killed for the same reason that people have been killed in all of human history (rather than because he walked around saying, “I am God”), we will have turned an important corner on our quest for the historical Jesus. He was rejected because of his worldview much more than his God-view. Yet these two are intrinsically connected. This now and not-yet Reign of God is the foundation for our personal hope and our cosmic optimism, but it is also our deepest alienation from the world as it is. We are strangers and nomads on this earth (Heb. 11:13). Our task is to learn how to live in both worlds until they become one—at least in us.

(quoted from Fr. Richard Rohr)

All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw them and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth.”

— Hebrews 11:13 (NRSV)
