Saint Elizabeth of the Trinity

We acknowledge that we carry out our worship on the unceded, ancestral territory of the Indigenous peoples of Atlantic Canada, the Mi'kmaq and the Wəlastəkwiyik (Maliseet). Our relationship and our privilege to live on this territory was agreed upon in the Peace and Friendship Treaties of 1752, and so it is to be acknowledged that we are all Treaty people, having a responsibility to respect this territory.

Whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever welcomes you welcomes me. Matthew 10.37-42

Lord Hear Our Prayers

We pray for the sick, and those who are awaiting or recovering from surgery, those receiving treatment and those needing strength including Heather Ayles, Marven Buckley (husband of Dianne) , Trevor Droesbeck, Irene Maclsaac (friend of Mandy Noble) , and Dora Power (niece of Marie Pike) and for those who have died and for those who mourn the loss of a loved one.

Did you know?

God does not abandon His creation: He makes us mindful of His Presence and opens our hearts to receive His care and love. (p. 245, SB 2024)

Call Anne at the parish office to find out more. All gifts matter!

Are you planning to be away over the summer months? Ensure your church offering gets to church, even if you can't. You are invited to drop off your envelopes (with cash or postdated cheques enclosed) at the parish office, or contribute to the parish by PAD for the summer months – it's a simple and secure process – please call Anne at the parish office to get it set up or if you prefer to use your credit card, you can set up monthly donations online using our DONATE button at setmoncton.com. Each gift is important and necessary for the success of our parish operations.

THAT'S A WRAP! Offering a program like Rainforest Falls: Exploring the Nature of God requires the support of dozens of volunteers and team members who dedicate hours (and in some cases days) of their time to putting on a quality program, and with 60 children registered we were at full capacity with a waiting list! Our deepest gratitude to Fr. Phil Mulligan along with the staff and parishioners of Immaculate Heart of Mary Roman Catholic Church in Riverview for generously allowing us to take over their space for the week. We feel blessed by financial assistance from Immaculate Heart of Mary Ladies Society (who also provide the daily snack), Knights of Columbus #9270 and Knights of Columbus #1310, St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, Congregation of Notre Dame Visitation Province, and the Religieuses Notre Dame Du Sacre Coeur, whose contributions helped us to offer the program at no cost to families.

A special shout-out to the VBS Team Members who tirelessly provided leadership and support throughout the week. It is inspiring to see many of the team who once participated in the program as children returning as young leaders and helpers. Finally, a heartfelt thank you to the families who supported this program by sending their children to spend the week with us and learn about the Nature of God and his love for us.

WHO WAS JESUS?

*Jesus was from the peasant class...His use of language was remarkable and poetic, filled with images and stories...He was not an ascetic, but world-affirming, with a zest for life. There was a sociopolitical passion to him...he challenged the domination system of his day. He was a religious ecstatic, a Jewish mystic, for whom God was an experiential reality...Jesus was an ambiguous figure---you could experience him and conclude that he was insane, as his family did (Mk. 3:21), or that he was simply eccentric or that he was a dangerous threat—or you could conclude that he was filled with the Spirit of God.---*Marcus Borg

*How we see Jesus...shapes what we think the Christian life is most centrally about.---*Marcus Borg.

The Bible is surely the most controversial book ever in print. It has done an immense amount of good. Unfortunately, it probably has also caused more damage than any other text. Throughout history we clearly see how many Christians acted in oppressive, ignorant, and abusive ways in the name of Jesus and the Gospel (two of the most damning examples being the support of slavery and the subjugation and colonization of indigenous peoples). It seems that to many Christians it did not matter what Jesus really said or did. They just needed an imperial God-figure, and Jesus was used to fit the bill. It could just as well have been Howdy Doody.

Thankfully, in the last several decades there has been a turn toward scholarship and theological study that considers the social, spiritual, cultural, political, and economic context in which the Bible was written. We're trying to be more honest with the Scriptures—inspired by God, as understood by humans—rather than making the Bible say what we want it to say or interpreting it according to our cultural conditioning. Yet God has always risked being misused, misinterpreted, or “man-handled” by God’s own people. For me, this is the deep symbolism of the babe in a manger. God completely, vulnerably gives God’s self over to our care.

Most Christians preconceive Jesus as “the divine Saviour of our divine church,” which prematurely settles all the dust and struggle of his human experience. Such a predisposition does not open us to enlightenment so we also can have the mind of Christ, but in fact, deadens and numbs our perception. Too often we read the Bible with an eye to prove this understanding of “our” Jesus so that our ideas and our church are right—and others are wrong. If we are honest enough to admit our bias, we may have a chance of letting go of it for a richer understanding of the Gospel.

The biblical authors, disciples, and church founders were also ordinary humans—people like you and me. I hope that understanding these people and their world will help us see who Jesus really is and what his mission always will be. There is no other possible reform of Christianity—and it will never cease.

(quoted from Fr. Richard Rohr)

Wishing everyone in our church family a fantastic Canada Day! As we enjoy the holiday, we pray for safety, rest, and blessing over our nation and our local community.

Have a safe and happy Canada Day!
