Parish Mission – October 25 – 28 at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church

Jesus revealed to his followers the secrets of God's kingdom. In a Mission he does the same for you. He reveals that His kingdom is here and now and that it spells happiness and fullness of life for those who share in it. Happiness often seems to elude us. We would like to change our lives, become "new people", more alive. The Mission offers us this possibility. Can you make this Mission? Decide today to put off anything that may interfere. You deserve this rich new life God offers you.

A PREACHER OF LOVE

Paul gives us a basis for loving all others as Christ has loved us. Paul offers a theological and solid foundation for human dignity and human flourishing that is inherent, universal, and indestructible by any evaluation, whether it be race, religion, gender, nationality, class, education, or social position. We now believe the reason this one man enjoyed such immense success, in such a short time, is that he gave human dignity back to a world that had largely lost it. One more god in Greece and Asia Minor would have meant little, but when Paul told shamed populations that they were temples of the divine, this made hearts burn with desire and hope.

The account of Pentecost in Acts 2:1-11 emphasizes that people from all over the world heard the Galileans speaking in the pilgrims' individual languages after the descent of heavenly fire and wind. The theological message is clear: God loves everyone! God's love and favor are both totally democratic and unmerited. This was meant to be the end of all exclusive and elitist religion. Sadly, it did not last long.

One of the reasons Paul's teachings had so much influence in Asia Minor was that he restored human dignity at a time when the region was a key source of enslaved people, women were considered the property of men, temple prostitution was a form of worship, and oppression and injustice toward poor and marginalized people were universal norms. Most of the world was not yet aware that human rights even existed. Paul shouts into this corrupt and corrupting empire, "One and the same Spirit was given to us all to drink!" (1 Cor. 12:13). He utterly levels the playing field: "You, all of you, are sons and daughters of God in Christ Jesus...where there is no distinction between male or female, Greek or Jew, slave or free, but all of you are one in Christ Jesus" (Gal. 3:26-28).

(quoted from Fr. Richard Rohr)

This is quite amazing, considering the divided world at the time! In Paul's estimation, the old world was forever gone, and a new world was born. This was surely impossible and frightening to some people, but utterly attractive and hopeful to the majority who had been given no dignity whatsoever. Who does not want to be told they are worthy and good? Who does not want their social shame taken away? No longer was the human body a cheap thing, degraded by slavery, or sexual, verbal, and physical abuse. Paul is saying, "You are the very temple of God." Scholars now believe this is Paul's supreme and organizing idea. Such an unexpected affirmation of human dignity began to turn the whole Roman Empire around.
